Invest in yourself. Your career is the engine of your wealth.

~Paul Clitheroe

For many people a job is more than an income - it's an important part of who we are.

~Paul Clitheroe

Don't go into business with the sole objective of making lot of money. If you put service, quality, and customer satisfaction first-the money will follow.

~Paul Clitheroe

There are plenty of ways to get ahead. The first is so basic I'm almost embarrassed to say it: spend less than you earn.

~Paul Clitheroe

The only prerequisites are past experience, a suitable personality and good communication skills: you need to be able to communicate adequately in English.

~Paul Clitheroe

Personally, I tend to worry about what I save, not what I spend.

~Paul Clitheroe

For many people a job is more than an income - it's an important part of who we are. So a career transition of any sort is one of the most unsettling experiences you can face in your life.

~Paul Clitheroe

Don't invest in anything that you don't understand. Do your research first.

~Paul Clitheroe

I don't think investment is that hard. It's doing the simple things on a regular basis.

~Paul Clitheroe

A successful business is a good way to create significant wealth, but not every business will grow into a News Corporation or a McDonalds.

~Paul Clitheroe

Before you start trying to work out which direction the property market is headed, you should be aware that there are markets within markets.

~Paul Clitheroe

Be prepared for disappointment and frustration. Be persistent and bounce back even more determined to succeed.

~Paul Clitheroe

If you don't act now while it's fresh in your mind, it will probably join the list of things you were always going to do but never quite got around to. Chances are you'll also miss some opportunities.

~Paul Clitheroe

When investing, I'm not against risk. If you take no risk you must expect a low return. Just don't let anyone fool you into thinking you can get a high return with low risk.

~Paul Clitheroe

Learn as much as you can about your proposed business. Ask questions. Join industry associations. Study successful competitors carefully.
