We forget that God's primary goal is not changing our situations or relationships so that we can be happy, but changing us through our situations and relationships so that we will be holy.

~Paul David Tripp

Love is willing self-sacrifice for the good of another that does not require reciprocation or that the person being loved is deserving

~Paul David Tripp

God's design in our pain enables us to look back and say: He loves me enough to take me where I would have never wanted to go in order to produce in me what I never could have achieved on my own.

~Paul David Tripp

Corporate worship is a regular gracious reminder that it's not about you. You've been born into a life that is a celebration of another.

~Paul David Tripp

If you don't keep the eyes of your heart focused on the paradise that is to come, you will try to turn this poor fallen world into the paradise it will never be.

~Paul David Tripp

We are called by God to do theology, that is, to live our lives with a moment-by-moment consciousness of God.

~Paul David Tripp

Grace will expose the deepest issues of your heart, then point you to the Cross which covers everything that's been exposed.

~Paul David Tripp

God never intended for us to simply be the objects of His love. We are also called to be the instruments of that love in the lives of others.

~Paul David Tripp

Today you will envy the blessings of another, or you will bask in the wonder of the amazing grace you have been given.

~Paul David Tripp

You can tell yourself that God's not fair, or you can thank Him that He's not fair. If God was fair, we would be doomed and condemned.

~Paul David Tripp

See yourself and weep. See your God and rejoice.

~Paul David Tripp

Sin doesn't always look sinful to us; sometimes it looks beautiful. That's why we need grace to see sin for what it really is - dark, dangerous, enslaving and destructive.

~Paul David Tripp

Only love for Christ has the power to incapacitate the sturdy love for self that is the bane of every sinner, and only the grace of Christ has the power to produce that love.

~Paul David Tripp

The Bible isn't a storybook with many heroes. No, there's only one hero in Scripture: the Son, the Lamb, the Savior, the King, the Redeemer - Jesus.

~Paul David Tripp

You cannot divide human beings into those who worship and those who don't. Everybody worships; it's just a matter of what, or whom, we serve.

~Paul David Tripp

Standing near someone you love in a time of trouble is its own reward.

~Paul David Tripp

I am my biggest marital problem

~Paul David Tripp

Every day you preach to yourself a gospel of your loneliness, inability, and lack of resources or you faithfully preach to yourself the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

~Paul David Tripp

Embedded in the larger story of redemption is a principle we must not miss: God uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things in the lives of others.

~Paul David Tripp

The good news of the kingdom is not freedom from hardship, suffering, and loss. It is the news of a Redeemer who has come to rescue me from myself.

~Paul David Tripp

How can you admit that your only hope is divine grace and then throw condemnation at another sinner when you see them struggle?

~Paul David Tripp

The kingdom of self tends to be more focused on what the hands can touch than what the heart should embrace.

~Paul David Tripp

When your sin is exposed, you will run toward confession and forgiveness or self-righteousness and self-justification.

~Paul David Tripp

True restoration takes patience, subtlety, skill, and grace.

~Paul David Tripp

Theology without love simply is very bad theology.

~Paul David Tripp

Every time you ask for forgiveness, you recognize that the biggest problems you face in life exist inside of you, not outside of you.

~Paul David Tripp

People struggling with life in a fallen world often want explanations when what they really need is imagination.

~Paul David Tripp

We must not offer people a system of redemption, a set of insights and principles. We offer people a Redeemer.

~Paul David Tripp

The fatal flaw of human wisdom is that it promises that you can change your relationships without needing to change yourself.

~Paul David Tripp

Sin is much more than doing the wrong thing. It begins with loving, worshiping, and serving the wrong thing.

~Paul David Tripp

If you are in Christ, you've been chosen to transcend the borders of your own glory, to reach out toward a greater glory, the glory of God.

~Paul David Tripp

Sin is powerful, but not as powerful as the liberating power of grace.

~Paul David Tripp

Only when I focus on the holiness and glory of God am I able to see myself with accuracy.

~Paul David Tripp

Remember, when you're sinned against its tempting to respond sinfully.

Don't give in, talk to your heart and seek the grace of Jesus.

~Paul David Tripp

Do you require yourself to remember? In order to live as you can and should, you first must remember who you are and what you've been given.

~Paul David Tripp

Our sin is what separates us from God, but it's our self righteousness that keeps us from running to Him for the grace He willingly gives to all who come.

~Paul David Tripp

Corporate worship is designed to remind you that in the center of all things is a glorious and gracious King, and this king is not you

~Paul David Tripp

God's grace doesn't always come in comfortable forms. But it's still grace, and it's still evidence that He loves us.

~Paul David Tripp

Foolishness is more than being stupid, that deadly combination of arrogance and ignorance.

~Paul David Tripp

There is nothing that could be revealed about a pastor that has not already been covered by the blood of Jesus

~Paul David Tripp

Our need is so desperate an idea, a thing, a law can't help us. It took one thing, the gift of gifts, God in the flesh, to rescue us.

~Paul David Tripp

Sin makes us moral quadriplegics.

~Paul David Tripp

We rarely do anything with on single motive.

~Paul David Tripp

The Bible says that our core problem, the fundamental reason we do what we do, is sin.
