If we do not step forward, then we step back. If we do not protect a right, then we deny it.

~Paul Martin

Canada is our country. It belongs to us and we belong to it. Let us join together, in our time, and make history once again.

~Paul Martin

Don't tell me what's in the Red Book. I wrote the goddamned thing. And I know that it's a lot of crap.

~Paul Martin

For years governments have been promising more than they can deliver, and delivering more than they can afford.

~Paul Martin

At a moment that comes rarely in the life of a country. It is a time when destiny is ours to hold.

~Paul Martin

Put simply, we must always remember that separate but equal is not equal.

~Paul Martin

It's very clear that we are going to have 10 different [abortion] laws and that we are going to have these laws made by judges

~Paul Martin

Our veterans connect generations and Canadians. As a country and as individuals, we gain in pride and in purpose from their deeds and their service.

~Paul Martin

The fact is the statements are perfectly consistent, but more importantly, I don't have all the facts.

~Paul Martin

I am personally against abortion on demand, but I believe it is very clear that there must be legislation brought in that will deal with what is becoming simply a mish-mash of approaches

~Paul Martin

Every Canadian who wants to learn should have the opportunity to do so.

~Paul Martin

Since one never knows what will be the line of advance, it is always most rash to condemn what is not quite in the fashion of the moment.

~Paul Martin
