In heaven we will not longer cry, feel sad, or face death. Our bodies will be perfect, locked into eternal youth... ageless.

~Paul P. Enns

Every believer departing this old earth ...immediately transitions into heaven and is welcomed home by Jesus himself.

~Paul P. Enns

Existence continues at death for the believer in a fuller, more fulfilling way. Death should hold no fear for the believer.

~Paul P. Enns

Many of the passages that describe the millennial kingdom also, in continuity, describe the new heaven and the new earth the eternal state.

~Paul P. Enns

It is only as we focus our thoughts on heaven that we will correctly interpret life on earth.

~Paul P. Enns

Scripture indicates that heaven is not distant but rather... heaven is near in another realm.

~Paul P. Enns

Heaven is where God dwells. It is a specific place; a place of unparalleled tranquility and beauty. It includes the new heaven and new earth.

~Paul P. Enns

The new earth will be like Eden. ..the deserts will gush with water. ... A beautiful and bountiful land will flourish.

~Paul P. Enns

The new earth will complete God's program. It will be what God intended for Adam and Eve in Eden.

~Paul P. Enns

A magnificent restoration awaits us. Christ comes in judgment; then restoration.

~Paul P. Enns

Prosperity and security are ours in heaven. We will live in peace and safety.

~Paul P. Enns

God, through Jesus Christ, is the victory, and the renewed earth will reflect that glory.

~Paul P. Enns

As a believer is changed, receiving a glorified body, so similarly, the earth is changed into a new earth, unstained by sin.

~Paul P. Enns

While we look forward to a new heaven, let's first consider the new earth, for the new earth will indeed be like heaven on earth. We will live on a restored earth.

~Paul P. Enns

As believers we have no need to fear death. Christ himself assures us of a safe arrival home in heaven!

~Paul P. Enns

We are limited by our visual, physical senses; yet from the Scriptures we can readily conclude that heaven is indeed not distant at all. It is nearby.

~Paul P. Enns

On the new earth heaven we will have perfect bodies, resistant to any ailment. Our new bodies will continue on forever, without missing a beat.

~Paul P. Enns

When we see one another in heaven, we will have beautiful bodies that will far surpass the beauty of our bodies on this earth.

~Paul P. Enns

Death brings release & removal from all evil, every tragedy & all difficulty. Death is not an enemy.

~Paul P. Enns

Believers have a genuine, unfailing hope of a future reunion with loved ones. We can find joy in anticipating our future reunion.

~Paul P. Enns

Our abilities and giftedness does not end of this earth; we will continue to serve the Lord in agreement with our abilities on this earth.

~Paul P. Enns

Upon death the believer goes immediately into the presence of Christ in heaven, a realm far better than this earth. Heaven is our true home.
