Self-professed conservatives comprise about 40% to 45% of the electorate.

~Paul Weyrich

Self-professed liberals are only 15 to 20% of the electorate.

~Paul Weyrich

They want everybody to vote. I don't want everybody to vote. . . . As a matter of fact, our leverage in the elections quite candidly goes up as the voting populace goes down.

~Paul Weyrich

We are talking about Christianizing America. We are talking about the Gospel in a political context.

~Paul Weyrich

The Fox News cable channel is doing very well because there is a market for what Fox News has to offer.

~Paul Weyrich

Policy makers still think that if we just hand out more money the world's problems will be solved.

~Paul Weyrich

So along with several very popular Internet sites, talk radio has served as alternative media that gives listeners information that they otherwise would not hear.

~Paul Weyrich

Radical Islamic fundamentalists harbor contempt for our democratic way of life and, given the opportunity, will stop at nothing to accomplish their goal of bringing our country to its knees.

~Paul Weyrich

Absent scandal, a federal judge can serve for decades on the bench, underscoring the importance of appointing judges who have a proper understanding of their constitutional role.

~Paul Weyrich

The White House alone cannot hold its opponents accountable.

~Paul Weyrich

Second, a quarter to a third of those who listen to Rush Limbaugh and Sean Hannity are liberals.

~Paul Weyrich

Politics aside, it will be hard for any new liberal radio network to outdo the professionalism of NPR.

~Paul Weyrich

Unfortunately, too many public school officials believe that cameras are needed to enforce order and discipline.

~Paul Weyrich

CAIR officials or former officials have been arrested on charges related to terrorism yet all it offers is silence and stonewalling in discussing what are its real motives.

~Paul Weyrich

~Paul Weyrich

Both Christians and religious Jews are finding it increasingly difficult to practice their faiths through college groups on so-called mainline campuses in the United States.

~Paul Weyrich

Conservative talk radio works because there are lots of conservatives who are convinced that they are not getting the whole story from the regular media.

~Paul Weyrich

Despite being able to demonstrate a very large audience, major advertisers at first wouldn't touch Limbaugh.

~Paul Weyrich

It is commonly agreed that children spend more hours per year watching television than in the classroom, and far less in actual conversation with their parents.

~Paul Weyrich

Judges were not the biggest issue for most voters in Georgia in 2002.

~Paul Weyrich

If liberals want to send tens of millions of dollars down the drain, I have no problem with that.

~Paul Weyrich

Conservative voters increasingly understand that the one legacy a president can leave is his judicial appointments.

~Paul Weyrich

What changed their mind was Jimmy Carter's intervention against the Christian schools, trying to deny them tax-exempt status on the basis of so-called de facto segregation.

~Paul Weyrich

Many nations are like rebellious teenagers who try to figure out just how many times they can kick us in the teeth while still taking our money.

~Paul Weyrich

The average voter has to hear a point seven times before it registers.

~Paul Weyrich

For one, the Qur'an is considered by Muslims to consist entirely of words spoken by Allah himself.

~Paul Weyrich

If a liberal News channel were launched it would fall flat on its face.

~Paul Weyrich

But the threat posed by the radical Islamists represents an unusual conflict, unlike any experienced by our nation before: we face an enemy that is not a state.

~Paul Weyrich
