If you're not having a good time, find something else that gives you some joy in life.

~Penny Marshall

I think directors should at least take acting lessons to see what's going on. And I think all actors should direct to see what a director has to go through.

~Penny Marshall

I live in L.A., so I go to basketball games. But I love baseball.

~Penny Marshall

I have a strange combination of fearlessness and massive insecurity.

~Penny Marshall

My family is well, and that's what's important.

~Penny Marshall

I have a grandson who is 20. He's a computer guy. I'm worried that he can't communicate without his machine. They have no personal contact with people. That's the bad part of technology.

~Penny Marshall

I don't mind if somebody texts me but I'm not a big texter, the things are too small. I don't mind if they text, '7 o'clock,' that's fine, that's logistics but, 'What's up?' Get real! Pick up a phone!

~Penny Marshall

It's better for me to go up against someone's passion with my passion and then clarifying something that he wrote. Then I know how to work around certain things.

~Penny Marshall

My mother was pretty nuts, but she was also a character.

~Penny Marshall

Do whatever you can that doesn't compromise your morals.

~Penny Marshall

Next to sex my favorite thing is laughing - it's part of sex. Make me laugh - I'll love you.

~Penny Marshall

In my opinion, life is more important than show business.

~Penny Marshall

Movie stars are insecure like everyone else. That's why they go into acting!

~Penny Marshall

The truth is that I am not a frump... I just enjoy being laid back.

~Penny Marshall

You had to learn at a certain age what sarcasm is, you know?

~Penny Marshall

People who text a lot are not my favorite thing.

~Penny Marshall

We all used to collect baseball cards that came with bubble gum. You could never get the smell of gum off your cards, but you kept your Yankees cards pristine.
