Just the other day, it seems, the kids were running through the house, slamming doors, breaking glass, making noise. Time goes by so quickly. Sometimes everything seems so fleeting.

~Perry Como

Acting coaches in Hollywood were always telling me to use my hands and body more. But that was never me. I just breathe and sometimes it doesn't look as if I'm doing that.

~Perry Como

My only regret in life is that I didn't spend as much time with my kids as I now wish I had.

~Perry Como

We also own a little boat and I'm like a kid with it. I take off early in the morning, fishing rod in tow, and just drift about the ocean all day.

~Perry Como

That I can't relate to today's music or morals doesn't make either necessarily bad. Just different. I leave the judgements to others.

~Perry Como

People have always thought that I wasn't ambitious. They judged by appearances and were fooled. I was competitive. I wanted success and was willing to work for it.

~Perry Como

I had 13 weeks off and I would pack up the family and drive to some mountain retreat where we could be together and fish all day. I loved it. I needed it.

~Perry Como

I worked with the world's greatest talents and then went home to the world's greatest woman. It was, and is, a great life.

~Perry Como

But today, I feel the genuine warmth, the affection, and although I may joke about it, I am touched.

~Perry Como

The bluest skies . . . are in Seattle.

~Perry Como

In many ways, that affection is the real reward for 56 years in the business. Although the money ain't exactly bad either.

~Perry Como

Catch a falling star and put it in your pocket / Never let it fade away /
Catch a falling star and put it in your pocket / Save it for a rainy day

~Perry Como

For the amount of talent I had (and I couldn't dance, act, or tell a joke) I enjoyed a tremendous career.

~Perry Como

The business has changed greatly since my day.
