The world that surrounded me disgusted me so I chosen to invent one of my own.

~Pete Doherty

If you've lost your faith in love and music, Oh the end won't be long...

~Pete Doherty

I have a very bad relationship with the future. We don't get on. We just ignore each other.

~Pete Doherty

Broken glass. It's just like glitter, isn't it?

~Pete Doherty

The more that you follow me, the more I get lost

~Pete Doherty

There's no drug in the world that can compare with playing music.

~Pete Doherty

'Each man kills the things he loves'. I recognise that in myself, in relationships, even with guitars, beautiful things that I've had and wilfully destroyed.

~Pete Doherty

I'm not going to be hardened by these people, to these things, I'm not going to let them destroy my feelings or my emotions.

~Pete Doherty

I'm vain because I'm imperfect.

~Pete Doherty

I fall in love with Britain every day, with bridges, buses, blue skies... but it's a brutal world, man.

~Pete Doherty

Open your heart. Don't be spiteful.

~Pete Doherty

No one comes up to me asking for a crack dealer's number. People come up to me to talk about lyrics, about music, about the band.

~Pete Doherty

You want to dance. You want to sing. Yeah, that feeling, of course, is beyond recollection really.

~Pete Doherty

I've learnt that there's nothing in my day to day life or anything that I do that is in any way aimed at changing how I'm perceived or how I'm presented; it's completely impossible.

~Pete Doherty

I love her but I wouldn't marry her if she [Kate Moss] was the last woman on earth.

~Pete Doherty

Mix your drinks, and it's best not to cry over spilt milk, but put it back in the bottle.

~Pete Doherty

There's a difference between performing in Philadelphia to New York as much as a difference between playing in Luton and playing in San Francisco, y'know what I mean?
