I have learned from my mistakes, and I am sure I can repeat them exactly

~Peter Cook

As I looked out into the night sky, across all those infinite stars, it made me realize how insignificant they are.

~Peter Cook

Life is a matter of passing the time enjoyably. There may be other things in life, but I've been too busy passing my time enjoyably to think very deeply about them.

~Peter Cook

One of the ways to avoid being beaten by the system is to laugh at it.

~Peter Cook

I am blind -- but I am able to read thanks to a wonderful new system known as 'broil' . . . I'm sorry, I'll just feel that again.

~Peter Cook

You realize that suicide's a criminal offense. In less enlightened times they'd have hung you for it.

~Peter Cook

Now I tell you the downside of this is you feel awful, but the upside is you feel terrific.

~Peter Cook

If there's one thing I can't bear, it's when hundreds of old men come creeping in through the window in the middle of the night and throw all manner of garbage over me. I can't bear that.

~Peter Cook

Everything I've ever told you, including this, is a lie.

~Peter Cook

I went to the University of Life and was chucked out.

~Peter Cook

We exchanged many frank words in our respective languages.

~Peter Cook

The thing that makes you know that Vernon Ward is a good painter is if you look at his ducks, you can see the eyes follow you around the room.

~Peter Cook

Playing rugby at school I once fell on a loose ball and, through ignorance and fear, held on despite a fierce pummelling. After that it took me months to convince my team-mates I was a coward.

~Peter Cook

I am very interested in the Universe - I am specialising in the Universe and all that surrounds it.

~Peter Cook

The garden of Eden was a boggy swamp just south of Croydon. You can see it over there.

~Peter Cook

I didn't know dirty words could be done that artfully.

~Peter Cook

Job was what you'd technically describe as a loony.

~Peter Cook

I would much prefer to be a judge than a coal miner because of the absence of falling coal.
