When I make a dress that someone wants to put on and somebody else wants to take off, then I know I've got it right. Because when someone looks good on the outside, they'll feel good on the inside.

~Peter Dundas

It's important for me to really play with the traditions and keep things simple and easy. Ultimately I believe in animal instincts - I think they often end up winning out.

~Peter Dundas

Paris is one of the most incredible places to live. Once you get bitten by the city, you never leave.

~Peter Dundas

In order to be successful, you have to honor what's in old fashion house, but you also have to play with it and push the limits of it.

~Peter Dundas

Florence is probably one of the most beautiful cities in Italy. It's very quiet as well - there's not much nightlife - so it definitely keeps me focused on the work.

~Peter Dundas

I think my biggest muses in fashion are probably rock 'n' roll girlfriends, like Anita Pallenberg and Marianne Faithfull and Bianca Jagger - and then maybe Patti Smith a bit as well.

~Peter Dundas

I'm really working on trying to get that lifestyle aspect of the Emilio Pucci house to be as strong as possible.

~Peter Dundas

I'm not intellectual at all as a designer. Whatever I'm into at the moment is usually what becomes the collection.

~Peter Dundas

I feel like I have to go back to Paris every so often. It just grows on you - the look of the city, the way people hang out there. If you're in Europe, it's good for that.
