I strongly support European sanctions against Mugabe and his ruling clique. We must do all in our power to help the people of Zimbabwe achieve their freedom and prosperity once again.

~Peter Hain

There will be no support in the island of Ireland for building a nuclear power station.

~Peter Hain

I was never Vice Chair of the Troops Out Movement.

~Peter Hain

What my job is, is to get on with getting the process of democratic politics, back on the road, entrenching the peace settlement, and I ask you to judge me on my record.

~Peter Hain

Our task is nothing less than the creation of a new constitutional order for a new united Europe.

~Peter Hain

If we are tough on crime and on terrorism, as Labour is, then I think Britain will be safer under Labour.

~Peter Hain

My job now, as Secretary of State for Northern Ireland, is to take this process forward, and that I'm determined to do, whatever old clippings you dig out and whatever old quotes you put before me.

~Peter Hain

A lot of leading countries in the world, including the United States and Russia, have to take their responsibilities much more seriously to ensure we are back on the road to peace and stability.

~Peter Hain

I've had very good meetings with Unionist leaders, Democratic Unionist Party, Ian Paisley and his team.
