I find happiness comes from numerous sources in my life. Most often, the happy moments I cherish most are quiet moments with my wife and family back home in Nova Scotia.

~Peter MacKay

I was a crown attorney in my home town in Nova Scotia, and I learned that victims of crime needed better laws to better protect them. I saw politics as a means to improve this protection for them.

~Peter MacKay

My gut tells me and continues to tell me that the Conservative party is on a road back to government.

~Peter MacKay

Happy the society whose deepest divisions are ones of style.

~Peter MacKay

If the United States leads a multinational force into Iraq without United Nations backing, Canada should fight beside its neighbour. We've gone from being a middle power to a muddle power on this one.

~Peter MacKay

It's not as if our party has a leadership campaign underway.

~Peter MacKay

I've been called treacherous, stupid, venal, lazy ..and that's only by the Tories.

~Peter MacKay

You can't have a discussion about Israel and the region without including Iran and their nuclear ambitions.

~Peter MacKay

There is no more dangerous country in the world today than Pakistan.

~Peter MacKay

I feel guilty about spending so much time away from home and loved ones.

~Peter MacKay

We have to be focused on growing the party and getting young people to see us as a viable option.

~Peter MacKay

I don't think we're ever going to be in a position where we can say this is the template, this is the checklist, that must be met [for intervention].
