May we think of freedom, not as the right to do as we please, but as the opportunity to do what is right.

~Peter Marshall

When we long for life without difficulties, remind us that oaks grow strong in contrary winds and diamonds are made under pressure.

~Peter Marshall

Small deeds done are better than great deeds planned.

~Peter Marshall

God will not permit any troubles to come upon us, unless He has a specific plan by which great blessing can come out of the difficulty.

~Peter Marshall

Lord, where we are wrong, make us willing to change; where we are right, make us easy to live with.

~Peter Marshall

Most of us know perfectly well what we ought to do; our trouble is that we do not want to do it.

~Peter Marshall

A different world cannot be built by indifferent people.

~Peter Marshall

Unless we stand for something, we shall fall for anything.

~Peter Marshall

The proof of how real Jesus knew hell to be is that He came to earth to save us from it.

~Peter Marshall

God hasn't given up on you. He can still do great things for you, in you, and through you. God is ready and waiting and able. What about you, and me?

~Peter Marshall

Teach us, O Lord, the disciplines of patience, for to wait is often harder than to work.

~Peter Marshall

Let us not fool ourselves - without Christianity, without Christian education, without the principles of Christ inculcated into young life, we are simply rearing pagans.

~Peter Marshall

It is better to fail in a cause that will ultimately succeed than to succeed in a cause that will ultimately fail.

~Peter Marshall

Give according to your income lest God make your income according to your giving.

~Peter Marshall

The use of the right word, the exact word, is the difference between a pencil with a sharp point and a thick crayon.

~Peter Marshall

If you hug to yourself any resentment against anybody else, you destroy the bridge by which God would come to you.

~Peter Marshall

The choice before us is plain: Christ or chaos, conviction or compromise, discipline or disintegration.

~Peter Marshall

Christianity is a power religion. Christ has the power to re-create men from the inside out, as every man who has ever met Him knows.

~Peter Marshall

Anarchism as a political philosophy seeks to dissolve all forms of authority and power, and if possible, wishes their complete abolition.

~Peter Marshall

Enthusiasm is not contrary to reason; it is reason - on fire.

~Peter Marshall

Get off, you look ugly (to a blood splattered player during a game)

~Peter Marshall

The resurrection never becomes a fact of experience until the risen Lord lives in the heart of the believer.

~Peter Marshall

The aim is not therefore to liberate some 'essential self' by throwing off the burden of government and the State, but to develop the self in creative and voluntary relations with others.
