Seeing a movie you're in is nothing like seeing a movie you're not in.

~Peter Vack

I was born in the West Village in New York, and then when I was about four my family moved to what they joke is the suburbs, the Upper West Side. I lived there for most of my childhood.

~Peter Vack

My parents are actually very hip. They're way hipper than me.

~Peter Vack

If you're in something and you feel like it's not going well, what can you do about that? It's out of your hands. No matter what you do, you're not going to fix that as an actor.

~Peter Vack

If you feel like you're working with good people, you give them your humanity and just let it happen.

~Peter Vack

You would almost think it would be the opposite, but making a film sort of made me freer in my acting.

~Peter Vack

It's always nice to have a large role, but if it's a great small part, those can be so much fun. Size is less important than quality, always.

~Peter Vack

My father is also gifted at business, which is a blessing and a curse, because if you have the kind of mind that he does where you can do anything very well, that in its own way is sort of limiting.
