Leaders are creators. They bring their visions to fruition through the creative process.

~Phil Pringle

When we withhold the tithe we bring upon ourselves a curse.

~Phil Pringle

The promises of God become the power of God when they are believed and acted upon.

~Phil Pringle

When we have no room for the Word of God in our lives we have no room for success.

~Phil Pringle

Image promises much but produces little. Integrity, however, never disappoints. For me, integrity means living it myself before leading others to live it.

~Phil Pringle

No matter what the realm of leadership - the home, the workplace, the church, or the community - the vision is crucial. Leaders must funnel their faith into action so that life-changing results.

~Phil Pringle

Faith is a creative force. When we operate by faith, we employ the creative power of God.

~Phil Pringle

If a man knows what he wants, then he is in a position to decide that he will get it. This is faith. The determined decision of a man with desire.

~Phil Pringle

Goal setting is another integral part of achieving any dream. It is what takes a supernatural vision into the material realm where we can see it being accomplished.

~Phil Pringle

Faith is a spirit. It is an attitude. It is confidence in the heart.

~Phil Pringle

For the provision of God constantly to be at work in our lives we must activate the laws of God.

~Phil Pringle

Good leaders hold positive, views of the future. We believe God fulfills our dreams, and our dreams are enlarged. Our desires exceed what we currently have and where we currently are.

~Phil Pringle

People can become anything under the right conditions.

~Phil Pringle

Faith is the collateral of heaven. It is what you use to trade with in heaven.

~Phil Pringle

Visions possess greater significance than just entertainment! Visions have power.

~Phil Pringle

My work with churches has led me to the conclusion that the single most important element in having an effective and life-changing ministry is to capture God's vision for your ministry.â€•

~Phil Pringle

Faith is knowing something that no-one else does.

~Phil Pringle

What we preach is what we get. We are farmers sowing seed. If we are unhappy with the harvest we're reaping, we should sow different seed. If we want different results, we preach different messages.

~Phil Pringle

Whoever buys into the vision God has for the congregation develops an affinity for all that is going on.

~Phil Pringle

Discipline is the bedrock of character.

~Phil Pringle

Remember, Those who have the gift of faith are growth-oriented, goal-oriented, optimistic, and confident. - C. Peter Wagner.

~Phil Pringle

Another faculty has released this knowledge: our spirit. It is God's Word in our spirit. It creates a reality that registers in our spirit. We live by this spiritual knowledge and walk in its light.
