Camera-Phones are at the root of the Citizen-Journalism revolution.

~Philippe Kahn

Camera-phones are like nuclear power plants: bad people will turn them into evil, good people will put them to good use.

~Philippe Kahn

Trying to solve the worlds problems by making things 5% more efficient is like trying to play the violin with gardening gloves. Not much good will come out of it. We must invent new ways!

~Philippe Kahn

Every day I practise my flute. I've been doing it for decades and every day I find something new that inspires me for all the rest that I do in my days.

~Philippe Kahn

The power of Open Source is the power of the people. The people rule.

~Philippe Kahn

Too many are focused on rewriting the past, invent the future!

~Philippe Kahn

We focus on building innovation and inventing technology futures and we figure that it will take care of the rest. So far, it's done wonders.

~Philippe Kahn

Just like a picture is worth 1000 words, a camera phone is worth 1000 cell phones!

~Philippe Kahn

I build things that I think are exciting from a technology standpoint and will help make life easier, simpler and better for people.

~Philippe Kahn

If people would turn their TVs off for half the time, study science and practice an instrument, they'd be virtuosos and have Ph.Ds!

~Philippe Kahn

Radically simplify the user interface, reinvent it, enough face lifts! You can put as much lipstick on a chicken as you want, it's never going to look good!

~Philippe Kahn

I figured that I wasn't as smart or talented as the other kids around, so I just had to work twice as hard. Surprisingly, results showed quickly. I was hooked!

~Philippe Kahn

Invention is the root of innovation. Innovation is the major force for change in the future.

~Philippe Kahn

We are less than a decade away from the medical lab the size of a sugar cube.

~Philippe Kahn

Great fit and synergism for both companies and excellent outcome for employees, customers and shareholders.

~Philippe Kahn

The biggest enemy is doubt. If you don't believe in what you are doing, you aren't going to make it.

~Philippe Kahn

There is no greater goal than to truly improve Mr and Ms Everyone's health, as an innovator that is where I want to spend my energy.

~Philippe Kahn

Accelerometrics is a cool new discipline. Newton and Galileo would love it.

~Philippe Kahn

I rarely saw people sitting at computers producing real code wearing ties.

~Philippe Kahn
