I don't know how you get dressed if you live in Wales, because it's pouring rain and then it's hot sunshine, and then it might hail. It's just so confusing.

~Piper Perabo

I was never the girl who walked down the centre of the hallway snapping people out of her way.

~Piper Perabo

In Texas it's always hot, dry, sunny, not a cloud in the sky.

~Piper Perabo

Well, love is confusing at all ages, but especially when you're 17.

~Piper Perabo

I was bookish and dorky in high school, so the best part of this movie was getting to be on the other side.

~Piper Perabo

She tries to get a waitressing job for a while - I mean, she's looking for a while before she finds Coyote Ugly - and it's hard to get a waitressing job in the city.

~Piper Perabo

There's no changing your mind about whom you love. That's part of the tough thing about being in love - it's sort of undeniable.

~Piper Perabo

It takes a lot of guts to get up on top of a bar and dance.

~Piper Perabo

But at school, I wasn't athletic, and if you're not athlete in high school, it's kind of hard to find your place, so play practice seemed perfect, especially if you were as uncoordinated as I was.

~Piper Perabo

I can only pay my electric bill for my last two years on my acting.

~Piper Perabo

I mean, its hard to be an actor in the city - trying to make it as an actor - because you waitress all night, you get home really late and you're super tired and your feet hurt.

~Piper Perabo

I got lost a lot, and I was a really bad waitress... I got lost on the subway.

~Piper Perabo

I had just done what she does in the story just about a year earlier - I moved from New Jersey and came to New York and was working at a bar, and you know, trying to make it.

~Piper Perabo

In Wales, it's eight different weathers in a day.

~Piper Perabo

I think that you love who you love, and there are people who you love that people aren't going to understand why, and that sort of doesn't really matter.

~Piper Perabo

I went to college in Ohio, at Ohio University, and I graduated two years ago.

~Piper Perabo

To me, a great love story is a great love story, and it doesn't matter what gender is involved.

~Piper Perabo

I've never been one for sitting on beaches.

~Piper Perabo

I was glad to have had some dance background because some of the dances are pretty wild.

~Piper Perabo

I had seen Shawn Levy's movie just before, Just Married. And I think when I met him too, he's very smart and together and he's got it together.

~Piper Perabo

What I'd really like to do is do a film or two a year and then do theater in New York the rest of the year.

~Piper Perabo

I think that's why I like New York City because you can just put on your backpack and just explore; you never know where you are going to end up.

~Piper Perabo

Well, usually when I finish one character, I'm looking for a role that's really different.

~Piper Perabo

I'm NOT lost, they just moved my street.

~Piper Perabo

It was intimidating to play a deaf character. There's a whole culture in the deaf community and I really wanted to know a lot about that and honor it in the work.

~Piper Perabo

That's what I think we're all looking for - an honest love wherever you can find it.

~Piper Perabo

I really like to just jump in a truck with your backpack and just drive and go somewhere.

~Piper Perabo

I don't want to brag, but I'm a pretty good driver.

~Piper Perabo

You can only really open yourself up so far to someone that you don't truly love you keep something back when you know somewhere in your gut that this relationship is going to be forever.

~Piper Perabo

And so when I graduated I moved to New York, and I was waitressing here and auditioning - and I got my first job pretty soon after.

~Piper Perabo

I invest because I'm really a firm believer in letting the artist make their work, if you choose to work with an artist then you give them the go-ahead.

~Piper Perabo

I believe in following your instincts with the people that you like and who you like to be with.
