Fifty years ago, the spoken word reigned, but during the last fifty years, the power has gone over to pictures.

~Pipilotti Rist

First I did animation films, when I was young, in time-lapse. And then in the '80s I went directly to video. The main reason for that was that I could control all the steps.

~Pipilotti Rist

It will probably take several more generations before the female body can be considered a stand-in for the human body.

~Pipilotti Rist

I'm always in awe of and respect humans for their ability to plan, but sometimes, good intentions are lost along the way. And often the way becomes the goal.

~Pipilotti Rist

The smaller the group, the more trial and error and experimenting you can do. I do a lot of garbage.

~Pipilotti Rist

It's impossible for artists to accept compliments.

~Pipilotti Rist

Choosing a name is a self-fulfilling prophecy.

~Pipilotti Rist

I have no animals, unless you count my two kilos of bacteria.

~Pipilotti Rist

That is an annoying side of democracy. The pendulum falls often in the extreme, and then we have to bring it back. It's never stable; it's a permanent discussion about finding a way back.

~Pipilotti Rist

I did not go to art school thinking that I was an artist; I went there mainly doing stage sets for bands. I considered my work more as an applied art for musicians, not as art in and for itself.
