Corruption is the enemy of development, and of good governance. It must be got rid of. Both the government and the people at large must come together to achieve this national objective.

~Pratibha Patil

There should be no effort, consciously or otherwise, that will lead to the erosion of institutional credibility and authority.

~Pratibha Patil

India is known for its sobriety and wisdom, balanced and sensible thinking. We need strong institutions and we need good governance in the country.

~Pratibha Patil

Women have talent and intelligence but due to social constraints and prejudices, it is still a long distance away from the goal of gender equality.

~Pratibha Patil

All issues, therefore, must be resolved through dialogue and there can be no place for violence. Negativity and rejection cannot be the path for a vibrant country that is moving to seek its destiny.

~Pratibha Patil

Five years ago, when I was elected, I had the feeling that the president doesn't have much to do. I've realized, though, that this is not a rubber-stamp position.

~Pratibha Patil

It is an ideology born out of hatred and its adherents belong to no religion, culture or civilisation.

~Pratibha Patil

This post of President is a Constitutional post. It is the duty of everyone, all citizens to see that they respect the post... the institution of President.

~Pratibha Patil

Parliament of the country is the repository of the sovereign will of the people, and its successful functioning is a joint responsibility of both the government and the Opposition.

~Pratibha Patil

India seeks to be a permanent member of the U.N. Security Council... things like this don't happen automatically, you need constant dialogue and discussion with the world.

~Pratibha Patil

India-Seychelles relations have been characterized by close friendship, understanding and cooperation.
