You know what's the worst part about being an actress? It's the pressure to look gorgeous all the time and to behave perfectly. But I'm not perfect, nobody is.

~Preity Zinta

I cannot starve myself. I'm a foodie! I make fabulous pastas, Indian food, parathas and club sandwiches!

~Preity Zinta

If I can be my crazy, wild self in front of a person, and he still likes me, that's romantic.

~Preity Zinta

It is superficial to fall in love with someone looking at their face. To me I need to discover the person. I would never look at someone and exclaim - He is the one!

~Preity Zinta

Just like a script, you need to keep a business plan to yourself.

~Preity Zinta

People will always have an opinion, but you have to live life the way you want to. It's very easy to tell others what to do, but difficult to implement it on yourself.

~Preity Zinta

I stay away from negative relationships. They are energy-sapping vampires. I can't handle them.

~Preity Zinta

I have this whole thing that when God gives you more than you have imagined, you should give it back.

~Preity Zinta

What I've learnt is never to work with the person you are in a relationship with because sometimes you need a break.

~Preity Zinta

The Fastest way to make you dream come true is to wake up!

~Preity Zinta

When you step away from doing something that you have always been doing and then you return to it, you have a different perspective. You get that desire and the will to strike at everything.

~Preity Zinta

I moved to cricket at a time when I was at the peak of my career, and I can guarantee you that no one else from Bollywood would have done that.

~Preity Zinta

To act, you must know pain. You must know what it means to be in love, what it means to be rejected.

~Preity Zinta

Two things in India are religion - one is cricket, and one is movies - these are two things.

~Preity Zinta

Acting can truly take a toll on your nerves. I mean we have to be larger than life. Worse, I've seen actors acting off the sets too.

~Preity Zinta

Film is my first love. It wasn't something I intended to fall in love with, but I grew to love it.
