Everything in life is a risk! I mean, you walk out onto the street and it's a risk! Don't you think?

~Prince Royce

Fans have been very important in my career. Even though I'm just doing me and doing my thing, they're the captains of this ship.

~Prince Royce

I think that sometimes fans or supporters say "I love this artist" but they may not realize that he loves them back.

~Prince Royce

My ultimate goal in life, with my music, is to make a movement.

~Prince Royce

Every time I collaborate with an artist, I want to surprise fans. I want to do something new.

~Prince Royce

I hope to touch many Hearts through my music

~Prince Royce

There are two sides of me, the bachata/tropical Latin side and the English pop as well. They're both equally important, so I'll always make sure to keep both roots in my music.

~Prince Royce

I do want to give out a positive message and be successful.

~Prince Royce

I always used to sing in the shower, but I never really got into the music until a friend of mine helped me a lot with recording.

~Prince Royce

I always saw myself performing on stage and the girls yelling out my name.

~Prince Royce

I have fans from different cultures coming up to me saying that they don't understand what I'm singing but that they like the music.
