Before 'Gangnam Style' I was not a good attitude artist.

~PSY

The world's most famous and popular language is music.

~PSY

Unexpectedly, I'm here now, so I need to let all the U.S. marketers know that Asians are not different. We are all the same.

~PSY

The mindset of this [â€œGangnam Styleâ€•] dance is dress classy, and dance cheesy,

~PSY

The fact that I'm shouting that I have Gangnam style makes people crack up. Imagine if Brad Pitt was singing the song - would it be funny? A twist is important when it comes to writing lyrics.

~PSY

I'm not that good looking. That's why 'Gangnam Style' works. If someone handsome uses that phrase it's just awkward. But if someone like me uses it, it's funny.

~PSY

As an artist, the more experience, the better the creation. I'm a very positive person.

~PSY

All the people in Korea are cheering me like I'm a gold medalist or something, so I have a responsibility to my country.

~PSY

I need to show the world that my final goal is to perform huge concerts like Madonna.

~PSY

My lifetime role model and hero is Freddie Mercury of Queen.

~PSY

Everything moves way too fast.

~PSY

I never expect I would become a K-pop star.

~PSY

There's no time to be bored. I'm so busy doing the horse dance...

~PSY

It's tiring to be asked the same questions all day long: 'What is Gangnam style?' and 'Teach me how to dance.'

~PSY

I cannot learn creation from other people; I've got to do it myself. Now, honestly, I regret not studying - I don't know about harmonies, or anything, so if I'm composing a song, it's really hard.

~PSY

Queen and Bon Jovi, Aerosmith and Guns N' Roses - I had a huge rock-band mania. I play a little bit of drums.

~PSY

My original name is Jae-Sang Park, so it's totally different.

~PSY

In Korea, it's a tradition to inherit your father's business. Unfortunately, I'm the only son in the entire family, so they were forcing too much.

~PSY

My wife looks at the person Park Jae Sang and the singer who goes up on stage, Psy, as different people.

~PSY

If a Korean artist reaches to the top, we're all ready to stand up and applaud for him or her.

~PSY

Thanks to many great K-pop singers, the groundwork has been laid for more Korean songs to be readily accessible to an overseas audience via channels like YouTube.

~PSY

I like the word 'artist,' but I don't like the word 'artist' inside my house.

~PSY

I will bring more Korean dance moves and Korean songs overseas.

~PSY

I really like the P!nk song with the guy from fun., 'Just Give Me a Reason.'

~PSY

If I say, 'Hey, I'm Psy.' 'Psy?' 'The guy from the video on YouTube?' 'Oh.' I hate that. I've got to be more popular than the video. So I need to keep promoting myself.

~PSY

I've always tried to come up with funny dancing since I was young, to attract girls' attention for one thing. It's got to be funny. I can't pull it off with serious dances. That's not me.

~PSY

There's a lot of variety of musicians in Korea. I cannot say they are the best in the world, but I can say that Korean artists are really dynamic artists, so I am going to show that from now on.

~PSY

I just made my album. I did my best, and I uploaded the video just at YouTube. That was all.
