We are too busy to pray, and so we are too busy to have power. We have a great deal of activity, but we accomplish little; many services but few conversions; much machinery but few results.

~R. A. Torrey

The chief purpose of prayer is that God may be glorified in the answer.

~R. A. Torrey

Prayer that is born of meditation upon the Word of God is the prayer that soars upward most easily to God's listening ears.

~R. A. Torrey

If loving God with all our heart and soul and might is the greatest commandment, then it follows that not loving Him that way is the greatest sin.

~R. A. Torrey

All that God is, and all that God has, are at the disposal of prayer. Prayer can do anything that God can do, and as God can do anything, prayer is omnipotent.

~R. A. Torrey

Those persons who know the deep peace of God, the unfathomable peace that passeth all understanding, are always men and women of much prayer.

~R. A. Torrey

Prayer is the key that unlocks all the storehouses of God's . . . grace and power.

~R. A. Torrey

Pray for great things, expect great things, work for great things, but above all pray.

~R. A. Torrey

Every Christian who does not study, really study, the Bible every day is a fool.

~R. A. Torrey

The Spirit, when He prays through us, or helps us to meet the mighty "oughtness" of right praying, trims our praying down to the will of God.

~R. A. Torrey

Any church may have a mighty man of God for its pastor, if it is willing to pay the price, and that price is not a big salary, but great praying.

~R. A. Torrey

There must be, in any complete revelation of God's mind and will and character and being, things hard for the beginner to understand; and the wisest and best of us are but beginners.

~R. A. Torrey

Triumphant prayer is almost impossible where there is neglect of the study of the Word of God.

~R. A. Torrey

Out of a very intimate acquaintance with D.L. Moody, I wish to testify that he was a far greater pray-er than he was preacher.

~R. A. Torrey

The truly wise man is he who always believes the Bible against the opinions of any man.

~R. A. Torrey

God has not changed; and His ear is just as quick to hear the voice of real prayer, and His hand is just as long and strong to save; as it ever was.

~R. A. Torrey

To win men to acceptance of Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord is the only reason Christians are left in this world.

~R. A. Torrey

God's Word is pure and sure, in spite of the devil, in spite of your fear, in spite of everything.

~R. A. Torrey

The life of entire surrender is a joyous life all along the way.

~R. A. Torrey

It is of the highest importance from the standpoint of experience that we know the Holy Spirit as a person.

~R. A. Torrey

Those who truly believe on Jesus Christ are saved from all fear.

~R. A. Torrey

We are not saved by denying self, or taking up our cross, or doing anything else, we are saved by simply believing in Jesus.

~R. A. Torrey

We are too busy to pray, and so we are too busy to have power.

~R. A. Torrey

There are two ways of reaching the people. One way is to invite them to come to you, the other way is to go to them.

~R. A. Torrey

Every true revival from that day to this has had its earthly origin in prayer.

~R. A. Torrey

I prayed fifteen years for the conversion of my oldest brother. When he seemed to be getting further and further away from any hope of conversion, I prayed on.

~R. A. Torrey

I am ready to meet God face to face tonight and look into those eyes of infinite holiness, for all my sins are covered by the atoning blood.

~R. A. Torrey

I would rather go to heaven alone than go to hell in company.

~R. A. Torrey

Prayer can do anything that God can do.

~R. A. Torrey

The one who is truly born again will love the Word of God.

~R. A. Torrey

Wealth, honors, pleasures, is not so eagerly to be desired as the forgiveness of our sins.

~R. A. Torrey

Worship is adoring contemplation of God.

~R. A. Torrey

The failure to return thanks for definite blessings received is a manifestation of ingratitude that grieves Jesus Christ.

~R. A. Torrey

If we then let the words of Christ abide in us, they will stir us up in prayer.

~R. A. Torrey

Prayer will promote our personal holiness as nothing else, except the study of the Word of God.

~R. A. Torrey

If you make a great deal of Christ, He will make a great deal of you; but if you make but a little of Christ, Christ will make but a little of you.

~R. A. Torrey

If you in any way abate the doctrine of hell, it will abate your zeal.

~R. A. Torrey

The man or woman at home who prays often has as much to do with the effectiveness of the missionary on the field, and consequently with the results of his or her labors, as the missionary.

~R. A. Torrey

If you and I are to be used in our sphere as D.L. Moody was used in his, we must put all that we have and all that we are in the hands of God, for Him to use as He will.

~R. A. Torrey

Tell me your doctrine of the Fall and I will tell you the state of your theology.

~R. A. Torrey

The best book in the world to put into the hands of one who desires to know about Jesus and to be saved is the gospel of John.

~R. A. Torrey

Just as one gets the firstfruits of spiritual salvation in the life that now is, so we get the firstfruits of our physical salvation in the life that now is.
