The true test of a man's spirituality is not his ability to speak, as we are apt to think, but rather his ability to bridle his tongue.

~R. Kent Hughes

The Cross is the ultimate evidence that there is no length the love of God will refuse to go in effecting reconciliation.

~R. Kent Hughes

Fixing our thoughts on Jesus requires time, for true reflection cannot happen with a glance. No one can see the beauty of the country if he hurries through it on the interstate.

~R. Kent Hughes

The key to ongoing effectiveness [in evangelism] is a perpetual freshness in your growing knowledge of Him.

~R. Kent Hughes

Gossip involves saying behind a person's back what you would never say to his or her face. Flattery means saying to a person's face what you would never say behind his or her back.

~R. Kent Hughes

The height of devotion is reached when reverence and contemplation produce passionate worship, which in turn breaks forth in thanksgiving and praise in word and song.

~R. Kent Hughes

God can have our money and not have our hearts, but He cannot have our hearts without having our money.

~R. Kent Hughes

There can be no burden for distant unreached peoples without a burden for unreached neighbors.

~R. Kent Hughes

Only the Lord knows how many children lose heart because their fathers have hard days.

~R. Kent Hughes

A crucified Savior is not well served by self-pleasing, self-indulging people.

~R. Kent Hughes

A taste of righteousness can be easily perverted into an overweening sense of self-righteousness and judgmentalism.

~R. Kent Hughes

Listen well, and you will be pronounced a "brilliant" conversationalist!

~R. Kent Hughes

God is sovereign. His grace cannot be tamed.

~R. Kent Hughes

Givers for God disarm the power of money.

~R. Kent Hughes

A legalistic commitment to duration can kill one's prayer life.
