You know Texas is - even more now that Enron has bit the dust - it's held up on the back of small businesses.

~Rachel Griffiths

The filmmaker's got to make it his story and the actors have got to make it their story.

~Rachel Griffiths

There's nothing as exciting as a comeback - seeing someone with dreams, watching them fail, and then getting a second chance.

~Rachel Griffiths

I'm so motivated to collaborate with people and help them realize the kind of collective vision.

~Rachel Griffiths

A Golden Globe is a mood-altering substance, there's no doubt about that.

~Rachel Griffiths

I grew up on cricket and I think Australian kids are getting so Americanized.

~Rachel Griffiths

I think baseball - the baseball genre - is this mitt, to use a double pun there, to catch a whole bunch of themes.

~Rachel Griffiths

I think a big part of our attraction to sport movies are the stories contained within the sports.

~Rachel Griffiths

I just don't see where I could possibly fit in directing a feature.

~Rachel Griffiths

I found it an interesting portrait of a marriage in exploring notions of how one partner supports the other, whilst not jeopardizing the greater good - which is the family.

~Rachel Griffiths

There`s a good sense of fun and lack of sarcasm in the Texans, maybe a little earnestness which is kind of why I found it quite Australian.

~Rachel Griffiths

Acting is like playing, while directing is really fun, sort of like an orgy.

~Rachel Griffiths

I'm quite intuitive about what I pick. Often it's to do with what I've just done and how I'm feeling.

~Rachel Griffiths

I think family movies have gotten so rich in this country.

~Rachel Griffiths

People going into the cities for the opportunities and the towns are getting older, no young people.

~Rachel Griffiths

Although I'm not Christian, I was raised Christian. I'm an atheist, with a slight Buddhist leaning. I've got a very strong sense of morality.

~Rachel Griffiths

But just playing the partner of someone famous, I had a lot more freedom.

~Rachel Griffiths

I'm pretty ruthless about that; I think when you sign over your story, you sign over your story.

~Rachel Griffiths

Why movies are so powerful is because you are right in there and you stay in there until they want you to come out, and then you've really gone somewhere.

~Rachel Griffiths

I'm developing some screenplays at the moment with my Australian producer.
