Ecuador is a country which defends the right to life.

~Rafael Correa

After some reflection I have decided that while I am the president of Ecuador, I will not attend any Summit of the Americas until it begins to make the decisions required.

~Rafael Correa

They have been talking about a dictatorship and they were right because there's a dictatorship and there's a government that has been fighting that dictatorship, the dictatorship of the media.

~Rafael Correa

If you go into the Ecuadorian Amazon and you stick your hand in the ground, what you get is oil sludge. The oil companies continue doing whatever they please.

~Rafael Correa

The great sin was adopting the 21st Century's Socialism, something that not even its founder, Ditrich knows exactly what it is, though he says it is under construction.

~Rafael Correa

To assume all the powers is not good for anybody. Power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely. All those experiments have a bad ending.

~Rafael Correa

A daily newspaper should report the news, not play at geopolitics.

~Rafael Correa

It is up to you to decide who to believe: the same people as usual or those who endanger their lives to save the country.

~Rafael Correa

I'm not accustomed to giving advice to those who haven't asked for it.

~Rafael Correa

The workforce in Latin America was treated as a vulgar instrument for capital accumulation.

~Rafael Correa

We are going to have to discuss with and seek the opinions of other countries. We don't wish to offend anyone, least of all a country we hold in such deep regard as the United Kingdom.

~Rafael Correa

I would just want to wish President Obama the best of luck, and that he should bear in mind that just as he is a good person, there are many of us presidents in Latin America who are also good people.
