

Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Quotes

*Religious, Christian, People, Believe, Party, Law, Winning, Prayer, Borders, Chicago, Moving, Men, Jesus, School, Writing, Free Speech, Example,
Classroom, Body, 20th Century*

What good is religious liberty if it can only be practiced behind stained-glass windows on Sunday?

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

We should resist the temptation to identify our religious convictions with the platform of a party or the platitudes of favored politicians.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

What our children need more than to learn to read and write and add and subtract is to know Jesus Christ.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

I paint my face and travel at night. You don't know it's over until you're in a body bag.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Gandhi: Ninny of the 20th Century.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Freedom of religion has been replaced by freedom from religion.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

An Associated Press report by Chicago-based reporter Sharon Cohen in May 1993 examined Christian fundamentalists and concluded that they were prone to 'riots, terrorism - and death.'

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

The time has now come to amend the Constitution to restore freedom of speech for America's people of faith.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

You have to organize, organize, organize, and build and build, and train and train, so that there is a permanent, vibrant structure of which people can be part.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Our legal and political culture has created a bias in the law that borders on censorship against reading, displaying, or quoting the Bible.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

People of faith find themselves marginalized and ridiculed. In a nation where our coins carry the motto, 'In God We Trust...'

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Women's right-to-know laws are supported by the overwhelming majority, not just of men, but of women, and 70% of the American people favor bans on abortion after the 20th week late term abortions.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

The establishment clause was transformed from a shield for religion into a cover for the official sanctioning of religious tolerance.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Sometimes the cultures phobia of religion borders on the absurd.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Each new lawsuit seeks to expand the size of the 'religion-free zone' in the public square.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Religious conservatives still lack a theology of direct political action.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Antireligious bigotry is not confined to the classroom.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Students are not to read the Bible, jurors are not to hear it, prosecutors cannot quote from it, and teachers are not to display it.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Examples of hostility toward religious values and those who hold them abound... This antireligious bigotry is not confined to the classroom.

~Ralph E. Reed, Jr.

Related Links:

- Religious Quotes
- Christian Quotes
- People Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Party Quotes
- Law Quotes
- Winning Quotes
- Prayer Quotes
- Borders Quotes
- Chicago Quotes
- Moving Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Jesus Quotes
- School Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Free Speech Quotes
- Example Quotes
- Classroom Quotes
- Body Quotes
- 20th Century Quotes