One has to reap the fruits of his karma. The law of karma is inevitable and is accepted by all the great philosophies of the world: 'As you sow, so shall you reap.'

~Rama Swami

To achieve purity of mind, one should cultivate constant awareness by being mindful all the time. One should remain always aware of one's thoughts.

~Rama Swami

The poor long for riches, the rich long for heaven, but the wise long for a state of tranquility.

~Rama Swami

If you really want to examine your strength, see how many times a day you are disturbed.

~Rama Swami

Spirituality dawns when individuality vanishes. When our ego becomes aware of something that is higher than it - the individual Spirit, or Soul; then spirituality dawns.

~Rama Swami

Life does not need to be changed. Only your intent and actions do.

~Rama Swami

Meditation is a journey without movement. In the external world you have to move in order to go ahead, in meditation you don't move, yet you attain.

~Rama Swami

Modern man is too impatient and wants to master the art of meditation immediately.

~Rama Swami

The law of life is to leave behind the ground one is standing on and then step forward.

~Rama Swami

If you learn to go beyond the jabbering of your mind, and can go to the deeper aspects of your consciousness, then body, breath, and mind will not come in your way.

~Rama Swami

It is He who manifests as both matter and consciousness. There is no place where God is not. In every atom, in every living being He alone is present.

~Rama Swami

Genuine asceticism for finding one's own soul and for the good of humanity is worthy of reverence.

~Rama Swami

The scriptures say to wake up from the deep sleep of ignorance, remain fully awake, remain conscious, & go on learning.
