Once you depart from the Ten Commandments as being the foundation of right and wrong, you are in a free fall.

~Randall Terry

Behaviors are a choice. Feelings are sometimes out of our control. Behavior has to do with choices.

~Randall Terry

I've traveled all over the country for years speaking in churches, teaching the Ten Commandments. It's amazing if 2 percent of any congregation knows the Ten Commandments.

~Randall Terry

Most of the Ten Commandments are negative. The purpose of law is not to mandate good behavior. That concept comes from the French Revolution.

~Randall Terry

We want every human being in the womb to be safe, not have these babies be killed to solve some dilemma.

~Randall Terry

He who frames the question wins the debate.

~Randall Terry

Truth has within it the seeds of its own victory; Lies have within them the seeds of their own destruction.

~Randall Terry

I don't think Christians should use birth control. You consummate your marriage as often as you like - and if you have babies, you have babies.

~Randall Terry

Christians take Scriptures out of context to try to justify or to vindicate retreat and cowardice.

~Randall Terry

If it squares with the Scripture, then let's go. If it's in conflict with the Scripture, then it's heresy.

~Randall Terry

Homosexuals reject the process of healing because it's too painful and time-consuming.

~Randall Terry

I didn't run off with the secretary. It made it seem like I had committed adultery and then ran off with a secretary, neither of which happened.

~Randall Terry

We are not at the same place we were in 1973. This country today is drifting, moving steadily towards the pro-life position because the data is with us.

~Randall Terry

If someone doesn't know their Old Testament, they don't know right doctrine, right correction, and they can't be equipped for good works.

~Randall Terry

If my duty does involve heralding His law in every arena, then the Church in America is failing radically today.

~Randall Terry

So many Christian leaders have been so tepid or downright silent on the advance of the homosexual agenda.

~Randall Terry

I have to believe that people can change, otherwise I deny the Gospel, and I will not do that.

~Randall Terry

The homosexual community has more acceptance in America than it ever has, and the suicide rate is as high as it's always been.

~Randall Terry

A Christianity that is in conflict with the Scriptures isn't Christianity at all.

~Randall Terry

In a world without the law of God, you have chaos, oppression, tyranny, and everyone doing what is right in their own eyes.

~Randall Terry

The early Church had nothing but the Old Testament. The New Testament lies hidden in the Old; the Old Testament lies open in the New.

~Randall Terry

For us to think we can enjoy, understand and practice the Christian religion with just Matthew to Revelation is foolishness.

~Randall Terry

If we don't believe in moral absolutes and then we get into a cultural-political debate, how are we going to win?

~Randall Terry

Our goal must be simple. We must have a Christian nation built on God's law, on the ten Commandments. No apologies.

~Randall Terry

The Law of God reaches into every area of life, and it brings about incredible blessing and incredible freedom.

~Randall Terry

How long before we have, not just homosexual marriage, but homosexual unions between adult men and small boys?

~Randall Terry

...make dads the godly leaders [of the family] with the women in submission, raising kids for the glory of God.

~Randall Terry

America should function as a Christian nation.

~Randall Terry

It's the Law of God that gave the stability to Christian civilization.

~Randall Terry

We are saved by grace, not by the works of the law. But don't be so quick to write the law off.

~Randall Terry

George Washington understood that the Bible is the place where God's records of right and wrong are kept.

~Randall Terry

I believe that Clinton is the most wicked and vile President that this nation has ever had.

~Randall Terry

Intolerance is a beautiful thing...There are people that are politically correct that want to say the cardinal sin of the hour is intolerance and I think that is a bunch of junk.

~Randall Terry

If you want to understand Jesus, you have to study the whole Bible.

Christian duty is not defined solely by the words in red.

~Randall Terry

Our problem in America is not with atheists or the pagans who are consistent with their unbelief, but with believers who are inconsistent with their belief.

~Randall Terry

If God is sovereign, then it is impossible for civil government to be neutral on issues of law. All law is based in some religious code.

~Randall Terry

It's interesting to note that all revolutionary literature was written by pastors. These guys were involved in a revolution against the mightiest power that the world had ever seen.

~Randall Terry

Let's use the opportunities before us to stand for Christ. If we will do, God himself will honor our efforts and America can be restored.

~Randall Terry

The enemies of the Christian religion and the Law of God confuse law with faith.

~Randall Terry

It's kind of fun to listen to Christians who say: I'm a New Testament Christian. What other kind of Christian is there?

~Randall Terry

If the Christians who were alive in the 1770s behaved and believed like the Christians of today, there wouldn't be an America as we know it.

~Randall Terry

Let all those in government be warned: They cannot order people to pay for the murder of babies, and betray God Himself, without horrific consequences.

~Randall Terry

You don't know how to love God and your neighbor unless you look to the law to define it.

~Randall Terry

If the government of this country tramples the faith and values of its citizens, history will hold those in power responsible for the violent convulsions that follow.

~Randall Terry

The government forces you to give your money to things you don't believe in, to have your money go to projects that might be inherently immoral.

~Randall Terry

Once you depart from the Ten Commandments, you have relativism, humanism, the abandonment of absolutes. You have anything. How long before child pornography is mainstream?

~Randall Terry

The Bible is the supreme law that all governments must obey.

~Randall Terry

What kind of America do people want to leave for their children? What horrors are down the road, stuff that was unthinkable 30 years ago?
