Generally, you are held to a sound and that becomes your sound. That gets branded as your sound, and all the copycats start with it because the labels are looking for that sound.

~Randy Bachman

The local music community here was dying for a place to record, so we started doing acoustic, folk and bluegrass and then did rock projects for other bands, as well as for my son Tal and my own work.

~Randy Bachman

You take all the things that frighten you, and when you can get them to work for you all of sudden people are calling you a success.

~Randy Bachman

Those two songs condense the two albums. They also show what the audiences wanted. I was desperate to keep the band together and find something that the public would like.

~Randy Bachman

My songs are like cheap Neil Young copies.

~Randy Bachman

We like the imperfect because it reminds us of ourselves.

~Randy Bachman

My love, growing up on the Prairies, was country music.

~Randy Bachman

I don't think that bands that make it on their first album are as strong as bands that don't: there is nowhere to go but down.

~Randy Bachman

The fact that the internet is so active; people can now speak to me indirectly.

~Randy Bachman

With The Guess Who, it took us fifty-something singles before we had hits.

~Randy Bachman

When I was five I had violin lessons.

~Randy Bachman

I learned at an early age that I was given something special when I was born, and that was the gift of music.

~Randy Bachman

You don't have to have a great voice to sing, just a distinctive one. But make sure you say the words clearly and tell a story.

~Randy Bachman

When you get successful, you can do pretty much whatever you want.
