I don't believe in taking right decisions. I take decisions and then make them right.

~Ratan Tata

If you want to walk fast, walk alone. But if you want to walk far, walk together

~Ratan Tata

Ups and downs in life are very important to keep us going, because a straight line even in an ECG means we are not alive

~Ratan Tata

None can destroy iron, but its own rust can! Likewise none can destroy a person, but its own mindset can!

~Ratan Tata

Take the stones people throw at you, and use them to build a monument

~Ratan Tata

I admire people who are very successful. But if that success has been achieved through too much ruthlessness, then I may admire that person, but I can't respect him.

~Ratan Tata

I may have hurt some people along the way, but I would like to be seen as somebody who has done his best to do the right thing for any situation and not compromised.

~Ratan Tata

I don't believe in taking right decisions.

~Ratan Tata

Business need to go beyond the interest of their companies to the communities they serve.

~Ratan Tata

I have been constantly telling people to encourage people, to question the unquestioned and not to be ashamed to bring up new ideas, new processes to get things done.

~Ratan Tata

There are many things that, if I have to relive, maybe I will do it another way. But I would not like to look back and think what I have not been able to.

~Ratan Tata

The day I am not able to fly will be a sad day for me.

~Ratan Tata

I have also made this a point in our company: We need to stop taking baby steps and start thinking globally. It really seems to be helping.

~Ratan Tata

Power and wealth are not two of my main stakes.

~Ratan Tata

Young entrepreneurs will make a difference in the Indian ecosystem.

~Ratan Tata

I have always been very confident and very upbeat about the future potential of India. I think it is a great country with great potential.

~Ratan Tata

I would say that one of the things I wish I could do differently would be to be more outgoing.

~Ratan Tata

If it stands the test of public scrutiny, do it... if it doesn't stand the test of public scrutiny then don't do it.

~Ratan Tata

I will certainly not join politics. I would like to be remembered as a clean businessman who has not partaken in any twists and turns beneath the surface, and one who has been reasonably successful.

~Ratan Tata

IT and the entire communications business clearly have the greatest potential for growth. But if you're talking about sheer size, the steel and auto industries will remain at the top.

~Ratan Tata

I think the environment has become more competitive. That has made Indian industry more concerned with a) its customers, b) the quality of its products, and c) its brand image in the marketplace.

~Ratan Tata

The strong live and the weak die. There is some bloodshed, and out of it emerges a much leaner industry, which tends to survive.

~Ratan Tata

I have two or three cars that I like, but today, Ferrari would be the best car I have driven in terms of being an impressive car.

~Ratan Tata

What I would like to do is to leave behind a sustainable entity of a set of companies that operate in an exemplary manner in terms of ethics, values and continue what our ancestors left behind.

~Ratan Tata

At Tatas, we believe that if we are not among the top three in an industry, we should look seriously at what it would take to become one of the top three players.. or think about exiting the industry
