

Ray Allen Quotes

Team, Nba, Player, Basketball, Beautiful, Shots, Thinking, Home, Winning, Blessed, Could Care Less, Effort, Letting Go, Somewhere Else, Running, Character, Choices, Way, Dream, Play

When people say God blessed me with a beautiful jump shot, it really pisses me off. I tell those people, 'Don't undermine the work I've put in every day.' Not some days. Every day.

~Ray Allen

It comes down to consistency-if you want to be a great shooter, you have to shoot the same way every time.

~Ray Allen

Everything I know now . . . the pitfalls, the highs and lows, everything . . . it taught me and made stronger.

~Ray Allen

When you work on getting better at something, don't do it half speed

~Ray Allen

I'm always ready to step up and take that shot.

~Ray Allen

By practicing the virtues we cultivate the soil from which healthy emotions sprout; by letting go of our character defects we drain the swamp in which diseased emotions breed.

~Ray Allen

Everyone has to do their job. Everyone has to buy into it and believe in what we're trying to do regardless of who's playing and who's not.

~Ray Allen

God could care less whether I can shoot a jump shot.

~Ray Allen

A tough woman. That lady has touched more people than I've ever known.

~Ray Allen

When I hit one over, I knew I was good.

~Ray Allen

I always say if the house I live in is comfortable, and I have all the amenities I need, then what more can you ask for?

~Ray Allen

I dream about winning a championship, where everybody is hooting and hollering for you. The whole world is drawn to the NBA Finals.

~Ray Allen

It was Chinese music. I couldn't understand it, but it had a good beat to it.

~Ray Allen

My nature is to keep things inside. In time, I'll be comfortable stepping up when I think the team could use my input.

~Ray Allen

Would I do it again? Film another movie? Oh yeah.

~Ray Allen

When the effort is in question, the ball goes in different directions and the ball doesn't always bounce your way. When you're playing in the home of the NBA champions, it isn't going to be easy.

~Ray Allen

I tell the young kids, you have eight or nine months of the year to play basketball and the rest of the year you can relax. So, you've got to be ready. It doesn't last forever.

~Ray Allen

There is an entire culture out there built around siphoning money from an athlete, and the young men and women who come through just feed the machine.

~Ray Allen

Whether that is me retiring, staying here or going somewhere else, it will be on my terms. I've made it to this point, and I felt great that I have the choice to make it for myself.

~Ray Allen

Minnesota's a great city.

~Ray Allen

Sequels to most movies are always fluff and not as good as the first.

~Ray Allen

Related Links:

- Team Quotes
- Nba Quotes
- Player Quotes
- Basketball Quotes
- Beautiful Quotes
- Shots Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Home Quotes
- Winning Quotes
- Blessed Quotes
- Could Care Less Quotes
- Effort Quotes
- Letting Go Quotes
- Somewhere Else Quotes
- Running Quotes
- Character Quotes
- Choices Quotes
- Way Quotes
- Dream Quotes
- Play Quotes