

Ray McGovern Quotes

Thinking, People, Rights, War, Views, Citizens, Nsa, Country, President, Mean, Generations, Responsibility, Faithful, Men, Agency, Wikileaks, Firsts, Constitution, Directors, Technique

When an administration embarks on a war justified by little or no intelligence, speaking the truth can be regarded as treachery. The country could use more of that kind of "treachery".

~Ray McGovern

This was the ethos of the intelligence analysis directorate during most of the 27 years I spent there.

~Ray McGovern

You do what you know is good, because it's good, and then you have a certain peace of mind, saying, you've been an activist in a constructive way.

~Ray McGovern

My view of Bradley Manning is that he's a very courageous young man who... did what I didn't have the guts to do during the Vietnam war.

~Ray McGovern

And the passiveness, you know, the apathy, well, that's not responsible citizenship. When I'm asked, why am I an activist, I say, well that's the rent that I pay for living on this planet, okay?

~Ray McGovern

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- People Quotes
- Rights Quotes
- War Quotes
- Views Quotes
- Citizens Quotes
- Nsa Quotes
- Country Quotes
- President Quotes
- Mean Quotes
- Generations Quotes
- Responsibility Quotes
- Faithful Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Agency Quotes
- Wikileaks Quotes
- Firsts Quotes
- Constitution Quotes
- Directors Quotes
- Technique Quotes