I made a horrendous mistake not apologizing to my wife.

~Ray Rice

You can be a hero to someone just by being their friend.

~Ray Rice

I won't call myself a failure. Failure is not getting knocked down. It's not getting up.

~Ray Rice

Sometimes in life, you will get knocked down.

~Ray Rice

I was taught that I cannot back down to anything. I was trained never to be scared.

~Ray Rice

It hurts because I can't go out there and play football, but it hurts more because I have to be a father and explain what happened to my daughter.

~Ray Rice

Hey diddle diddle, Ray Rice up the middle.

~Ray Rice

I want to be someone that kids in my community look up to and want to strive to give back when they grow up.

~Ray Rice

Mom, thank you. Mr. Palmer, my father I never had, thank you for teaching me what it is to be a man.

~Ray Rice

I just want to thank [my wife] for loving me where I was weak.

~Ray Rice

I also want to apologize to my fans, to the kids, everyone who's affected by the situation me and my wife are in.

~Ray Rice

For the first 40 yards I am one of the fastest guys. After that, it's a horse race.

~Ray Rice

One thing we said as an offense is we want to start games fast ... we want the other team to play catch-up to us.

~Ray Rice

We'll always be grateful for the love we've received from all of our fans and supporters, and for winning a Super Bowl. I'll always be proud to say I played for the Baltimore Ravens.

~Ray Rice

I was forced to grow up quicker than most. I was forced to be a young man at a young age.

~Ray Rice

When I'm running, I'm looking for contact. It's kind of weird. It brings a fire to me. When I get older I'll probably get wise and not do that.
