George Jones may be gone but his music will live on forever. What a great voice and a great friend.

~Ray Stevens

Osama, yo Mama didn't raise you right. When you were young, she must have wrapped your turban too tight.

~Ray Stevens

Everything is beautiful in its own way.

~Ray Stevens

People will remember a good comedy song a lot longer than they would some of the so-called straight love songs.

~Ray Stevens

Whatever you think, don't never, unless you will.

~Ray Stevens

The human brain is a funny thing: it's very susceptible to tempo and melody. You put the right words to it, and it becomes very influential.

~Ray Stevens

Do you qualify to be alive or is the limit of your senses so as to survive?

~Ray Stevens

Take your love and put it where the sun don't shine.

~Ray Stevens

I had no idea that I could sustain a career as an artist. But, I loved music and wanted to be in the music business.

~Ray Stevens

If 10% is good enough for Jesus, it oughta be enough for Uncle Sam.

~Ray Stevens

Take the wonder drug that cures all your ills, take Jeremiah Peabody's polyunsaturated, quick dissolving, fast acting, pleasant tasting, green and purple pills.

~Ray Stevens

I'm a terrible trumpet player...

~Ray Stevens

They call him the Streak, he likes to turn the other cheek. He's always making the news, wearing just his tennis shoes.

~Ray Stevens

Everything is beautiful in it's own way. Like the starry summer night, or a snow-covered winter's day. And everybody's beautiful in their own way. Under God's heaven, the world's gonna find the way.

~Ray Stevens

Bill Justis was a saxophone player, good musician, arranger, and friend of mine who had a big hit called Raunchy.

~Ray Stevens

I originally passed on Raindrops Keep Fallin On My Head in 1969, so they gave it to B.J. Thomas.
