I am an artisan. I only became an artist when people watch what I do. That is when it becomes art.

~Rhys Ifans

I've been to unpretty places with the roles I've played, and I'm attracted to reckless abandon. I like being taken to the edge of my own abyss.

~Rhys Ifans

If it is not scary, it is not worth doing.

~Rhys Ifans

It is joyous for any actor to enter other grounds of consciousness and thought. At the end of the day, we just all like dressing up and playing around.

~Rhys Ifans

My work is my way of expressing myself without being arrested.

~Rhys Ifans

In Wales, singing and storytelling are party skills, not professions.

~Rhys Ifans

I am the least likely person in the world to be in an American football film! Which is why I couldn't say no to The Replacements; I thought it was hilarious.

~Rhys Ifans

I freely admit that I am a bit of a misfit.

~Rhys Ifans

I work hard and I party hard. When I go to work, I know what I am doing and I do it to the best of my abilities. When I party, I take exactly the same rule book with me.

~Rhys Ifans

I play really bad punk rock guitar. Age-old friends; it's just great hanging out with your mates, causing havoc.

~Rhys Ifans

Villains are fun. I think the important thing in playing them is that they don't see themselves as villains. It lets you be a little more expansive.

~Rhys Ifans

I think Jesus was a bit more of a fun guy. I'd like to play Him like maybe some days He doesn't fancy it, being God. Some days He's miracled-out and just wants to go have a smoke.

~Rhys Ifans

If I'd been a rock star, I'd probably now be dead.

~Rhys Ifans

Don't be late. Learn your lines. Be good to people. Treat people nice.
