God bless all the little children in the world.

~Richard Dawson

Be nice to each other. You can make a whole day a different day for everybody.

~Richard Dawson

It's wonderful to win, but don't get cocky about it!

~Richard Dawson

If I never do another thing, I've met the good sweet people of the world.

~Richard Dawson

I never presumed to tell anyone who could make a rainbow what color to make children.

~Richard Dawson

There were people I know that got upset that I kiss people. I kiss them for luck and love, that's all. That's what my mother did to me.

~Richard Dawson

I've had the most incredible luck in my career.

~Richard Dawson

Hogan's Heroes' lasted longer than the war.

~Richard Dawson

I abhor grades - if a child does his best, that's all that should be asked.

~Richard Dawson

I never dreamed I would have a job in which so many people could touch me and I could touch them.

~Richard Dawson

About 30 million people see me every week - I'm a happy man.

~Richard Dawson

Sometimes, when you do the music for a play, there are very clear boundaries as to what needs to be achieved. You're very much a little cog in a much bigger machine.

~Richard Dawson

I've never stopped working on songs and practising singing and guitar.

~Richard Dawson

You wouldn't want to move if you sat next to me on the bus. Or maybe you would.
