

Richard Dooling Quotes

Care, Running, Technology, Criminals, Men, Suspicion, Mad, Years, Sick, Writing, Brain, Children, Government, Judging, Ends, Answering The Phone, Fate, Phones, Eight, Moving

Under Medicare right now, I get paid to put a pacemaker in you, but I don't get paid to counsel you about end-of-life care.

~Richard Dooling

Criminal court is where bad people are on their best behavior. It's much more dangerous for lawyers and judges in family court, where good people are at their worst.

~Richard Dooling

I begin every novel with the vow that I will not write about technology, Catholicism, or Hell. As you know, I end up writing about all three. They just happen to be personal obsessions of mine.

~Richard Dooling

Making money, it seems, is all about the velocity of moving it around, so that it can exist in Hong Kong one moment and Wall Street a split second later.

~Richard Dooling

Yet now we are faced with the sickening suspicion that technology has run ahead of us.

~Richard Dooling

Related Links:

- Care Quotes
- Running Quotes
- Technology Quotes
- Criminals Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Suspicion Quotes
- Mad Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Sick Quotes
- Writing Quotes
- Brain Quotes
- Children Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Judging Quotes
- Ends Quotes
- Answering The Phone Quotes
- Fate Quotes
- Phones Quotes
- Eight Quotes
- Moving Quotes