Guys like John McEnroe, Bjorn Borg and Stefan Edberg were also very good grass court players.

~Richard Krajicek

I always liked serve-and-volley players and big athletes

~Richard Krajicek

I may have exaggerated a bit when I said that 80 per cent of the top 100 women are fat pigs. What I meant to say was 75 per cent of the top 100 women are fat pigs

~Richard Krajicek

There are a lot of good memories, and because I was injured, during the rehab, I met my wife. The tennis was very good but the injuries were good for something too

~Richard Krajicek

For the first couple of years I played really bad tennis. It was so bad that they booed me off the court

~Richard Krajicek

But in 2000, the injuries really started to kick in and my elbow gave a lot of problems. At the end of the year I had to take 20 months off before I could come back into the game

~Richard Krajicek

Hewitt is such a fighter on the court; he never gives up. They all have qualities to beat him.

~Richard Krajicek

But, then again, I had to stop because there was too much pain or too much trouble. After I retired I still had one more elbow surgery just to be able to do normal things

~Richard Krajicek

Federer can be the best ever; he has the potential. The only question is whether he has the desire

~Richard Krajicek

Now that I have retired, and even though I wanted to play more, I can always look back and say that at least I won Wimbledon; also, winning the tournament in Rotterdam in 1995

~Richard Krajicek

I want to reach absolute perfection. And I think I can reach it.

~Richard Krajicek

But, then, Sampras won Wimbledon six times and that automatically puts him among the greatest

~Richard Krajicek

I don't think anybody was ever up 6-2 and would lose the tiebreaker

~Richard Krajicek

I was serving good but was returning especially well, which was a weakness in my game. So not only was I serving well, but I was also breaking these other guys, and they felt the pressure

~Richard Krajicek

Maybe, one other match better; but if you look at the tournament as a whole, I played very high quality tennis for seven matches and raised my game when I needed to

~Richard Krajicek

Roddick has good presence on the court and has so much adrenalin

~Richard Krajicek

Contrasting styles is always the most fun to watch

~Richard Krajicek
