Also a portion of my sales go directly to Greenpeace.

~Rick Danko

As time goes on we get closer to that American Dream of there being a pie cut up and shared. Usually greed and selfishness prevent that and there is always one bad apple in every barrel.

~Rick Danko

When I used to play nightclubs, you had to play Top 40 or favorite oldies that maybe people could relate to.

~Rick Danko

When I was a kid growing up in Ontario, Canada, Lake Erie was so polluted, I never thought it would ever, EVER be turned around where they could start cleaning it out in my lifetime!

~Rick Danko

My first payback to society in life, was The Dolphin Project.

~Rick Danko

I like a lot of bass players. I like a lot of tuba players too.

~Rick Danko

After convincing myself that was maybe you should at least help out your neighborhood, I really started to think about it later on in life.

~Rick Danko

I am using soybean based ink, which is recyclable.

~Rick Danko

I love to play; a stage is a safe place for me to be. It's not that way for most folks, but I'd be lost without it.

~Rick Danko

You put a song on the record or on tape and you stop singing it. You just don't sit around and sing it anymore unless you're performing. That's kind of sad.

~Rick Danko

The Band was always famous for its retirements we'd go and play and get a little petty cash together, and then not see each other till it was time to fill our pockets up again.

~Rick Danko

Paul Butterfield and I had a band together at one point.

~Rick Danko

When I was younger, I had big visions of changing the world.

~Rick Danko

I'm here in the mountains, in the foothills of the Catskills.

~Rick Danko

He was a 'how' thinker, not an 'if' thinker.

~Rick Danko

The pressures, I don't really like to think about the pressures, I like to solve them, you know what I mean. I could sit here and complain about pressures but nobody wants to hear about pressures.

~Rick Danko

When CD technology first came out, it was just so much waste.

~Rick Danko

Getting older, I realize I've had a very fortunate life. I've had a budget that's allowed me to do just about any silly little thing the mind could conjure up, and I'm still alive and here.

~Rick Danko

God don't like complaints.
