Bandwagons roll through our lives. Its up to you whether you jump on them unquestioningly or jump on them to overturn them and subvert them.

~Riz Ahmed

My music is a very personal reflection of me, whereas, acting a role, thats a reflection of another character.

~Riz Ahmed

I'm working it out, man. I'm working through some stuff, trying to find my way like everyone.

~Riz Ahmed

It's crazy how we always hate the things closest to us.

~Riz Ahmed

You know my parents, man, they're just the most loving, encouraging... They're like those people who define themselves through their role as parents before people in their own rights.

~Riz Ahmed

The racism in South Asia is the most specific racism in the world. It's like racism against a slightly different language group. It's like micro-racism.

~Riz Ahmed

I go to a lot of stand-up comedy. I find more inspiration from observational stuff than from rap.

~Riz Ahmed

I have always been restless, had a lot of energy.
