Hey everybody, this is Rob Halford from Fight wishing you all a crazy heavy metal Christmas and an insane, wild manic New Year!

~Rob Halford

Never lose perspective on where you are and what you've got. And how you got it.

~Rob Halford

Metal musicians say dumb things sometimes.

~Rob Halford

Don't put yourself on a pedestal. Because it's very easy for someone to knock you off. It's balance.

~Rob Halford

I do my best; I put out things I believe in and if you don't like it then pass on to something else.

~Rob Halford

That's the life really isn't it? You write. You record. You play. And it never grows old.

~Rob Halford

It's a joy to actually be able to control your own music.

~Rob Halford

I would love to be in the Hall Of Fame.

~Rob Halford

Their brilliant audio expert, who is a marine biologist, should really be looking after Flipper

~Rob Halford

You gotta have fun. Even now we have fun onstage.

~Rob Halford

I love people. I love being in a band. I love making music. I had to figure out that was way more important than being addicted.

~Rob Halford

I rarely write by myself.

~Rob Halford

The only advice we gave Richie Faulkner was we wanted Richie to be his own guy. You have to let your musicians in your band be who they are.

~Rob Halford

We are looking at these rock 'n' roll campers, and we know what is going on in their minds because we've been there.

~Rob Halford

The last thing we wanted was a copycat. When we saw [Richie Faulkner] play, we thought, "We don't have to tell this guy anything. He's got it."
