I wouldn't go back on my old days, though; everybody needs to have their wild years. It's just a question of when and I'd rather have had them early than be doing it as a mid-life crisis type thing.

~Rob Lowe

Can someone explain the vitriol whenever Ayn Rand comes up? 'Atlas' is the greatest motivator for the individual that I can imagine.

~Rob Lowe

Sampling, statisticians have told us, is a much more effective way of getting a good census.

~Rob Lowe

I was sick of playing high-school kids. I liked being a teenager, but I would not go back for all the tea in China.

~Rob Lowe

The '80s were about trying to establish myself as an actor with a career. And being a teenager enjoying the fruits of being successful with lots of what I think is appropriate for that age.

~Rob Lowe

Be funny whenever possible, even if some people don't get it.

~Rob Lowe

We always reminisce about how everyone tried to get Diane Lane's attention, to very little success.

~Rob Lowe

Sobriety was the greatest gift I ever gave myself.

~Rob Lowe

Fake confidence on the outside often trumps truthful turmoil on the inside.

~Rob Lowe

People have a responsibility, especially with today's media, to read between the lines.

~Rob Lowe

They (teenage boys) don't really listen to speeches or talks. They absorb incrementally, through hours and hours of observation.

~Rob Lowe

You show me someone who's led a perfect life and I'll show you a dullard.

~Rob Lowe

[The Outsiders] was very competitive, in the best possible way. Full of love, full of companionship and fellowship, pranks and practical jokes and ball-busting.

~Rob Lowe

So I came to the realization: Nothing in life is unfair. It's just life.

~Rob Lowe

Directors are not worried about casting beautiful women, but they are not sure that they want to cast great-looking men. My looks have prevented people from seeing my work objectively.

~Rob Lowe

Any time an opportunity scares you that much, you should seriously consider saying yes.

~Rob Lowe

I don't look back with any bitterness, though there are a couple of judgment calls and some '80s hairdos that I'd like to do over.

~Rob Lowe

The umbrella that I live under is that you must be truthful with everyone except when to do so would injure them or others.

~Rob Lowe

I have been looking forward to this age of my life for a long time. In my twenties, I marked the days on the calendar - I was sick of playing high-school kids.

~Rob Lowe

There's this unbelievable bias and prejudice against quote-unquote good-looking people, that they can't be in pain or they can't have rough lives or be deep or interesting.

~Rob Lowe

I like the tradition of ordinary men in extraordinary circumstances and how they react to events which force them to be heroic in a way that is not in their natures.

~Rob Lowe

I have a lot of great memories, but I can't imagine anything more exciting than the life I have now.

~Rob Lowe

There is good and evil in each of us, and you can easily be led to the dark side.

~Rob Lowe

I have other obligations now - the show, my family, my life... though I know that without my sobriety I wouldn't have any of those things.

~Rob Lowe

I think part of maturity is knowing who you are.

~Rob Lowe

I think that in today's world the right to privacy and freedom of the press are set on a collision course.

~Rob Lowe

Conventions are, by nature, a party. I mean, that's why people become delegates. They come from all over the world to exercise their democratic rights and to party.

~Rob Lowe

I'll be sober ten years and married nine soon.

~Rob Lowe

When I was a teen idol, I was so goddamn pretty I wouldn't have taken myself seriously.

~Rob Lowe

You would not believe the amount of feedback I've gotten over people binge-watching The West Wing. Most of them have binge-watched it countless times.

~Rob Lowe

What people do in their private lives is their business, and shouldn't be anybody else's business.

~Rob Lowe

Of the many horrors of divorce, the most egregious is that it robs a kid of the best of both worlds. Dads can do many things that even the best moms can't, and vice versa.

~Rob Lowe

Show me someone who doesn't have some sort of experience that they would be uncomfortable for people to know about and I'll show you a dullard.

~Rob Lowe

The best part is not the biggest, it's the one that's most memorable.

~Rob Lowe

Intelligence is that aspect of human cognition that we haven't managed to emulate yet.

~Rob Lowe

I have never felt at any point in my life, good or bad, any ill will ever from the man or woman on the street.

~Rob Lowe

I have, on the other hand, felt ill will from various people in the industry and the press.

~Rob Lowe

My looks have prevented people from seeing my work.

~Rob Lowe

There's an argument that maybe [The Grinder] was better suited for streaming or cable. I don't know. I still like to think there's a place for smart, subversive, original comedies on networks.

~Rob Lowe

[Tony Richardson] just liked me, knew I was going to be what he wanted [in The Hotel New Hampshire], and that was the end of it. It was unbelievable.

~Rob Lowe

There is no recovery for anyone without lifting the lid on the pain of the past and letting in the light.

~Rob Lowe

If people are watching me 365 days a year, 360 days they might be bored to tears. And on the other five days, maybe I would qualify as Satan.

~Rob Lowe

I remember Tucker Toomey was named so because "T's are funny!"
And if Garry Marshall says it's funny, by god, it must be so.

~Rob Lowe

Every relationship has its complications.

~Rob Lowe

To achieve longevity you will have cycles. No one gets there in one straight shot.

~Rob Lowe

David Mamet, Tim Kazurinsky, and Denise DeClue, who adapted [About Last Night]. Between the three of them... I mean, it's always down to the writing. You're only as good as your writing.

~Rob Lowe

If somebody else is achieving more than I am, that means I can do it, too. Everybody has the ability to raise themselves up, and my life has been marked by that.

~Rob Lowe

I think of myself as a human being first and foremost, and secondly as a person whose profession is acting. If people want to make that into something more or less, that's up to them.

~Rob Lowe

Everybody is God. Everybody is the devil. And if you don't realize you have both parts, that's what really causes problems.

~Rob Lowe

I really make a point of never worrying, or trying not to worry, about the way I'm perceived. You'll go crazy otherwise.

~Rob Lowe

I have had a lot of blessed, interesting things happen to me and have bumped up against some amazing people.

~Rob Lowe

Ginnifer Goodwin said it very well - we're not doing the Hall Of Presidents at Disneyland. This is my interpretation of [J.F] Kennedy.

~Rob Lowe

Fred Savage, he's America's sweetheart, like I always say. One of the funniest, nicest, most decent... I love him like a brother.

~Rob Lowe

That chemistry that we had [with Fred Savage] is very, very hard to find. We were lucky to have those 22 episodes [of The Grinder]. I'm unendingly proud of it.

~Rob Lowe

It's always a good day when I get to work with Jim Belushi, who I adore.

~Rob Lowe

I am getting on in years, and I have a very extensive IMDB page, and I cannot keep track of my own credits.

~Rob Lowe

The really good thing about my career is that I never went through a phase where I played characters who had names like "Partygoer," "Waiter," or "Guy #1."

~Rob Lowe

To go from "gnarly" to "literally," that shows I'm growing up, right?

~Rob Lowe

[The Outsiders] was all new to me. It's been fun to be a part of that ride, where it's become on the level of Catcher In The Rye in terms of people's required reading in schools.

~Rob Lowe

William Devane was amazing [in The Grinder] - that we were able to reinvent an acting legend as a comedy star - that's very gratifying.

~Rob Lowe

If people find me attractive, it would be for reasons that anybody finds anybody attractive. It's something that comes from within, and it manifests itself physically.

~Rob Lowe

["John F. Kennedy" movie] was just really clever storytelling.

~Rob Lowe

My first lessons in comedy, how to construct a joke, I learned from Eileen Brennan, who had unbelievable timing.

~Rob Lowe

One of my favorite books [The Stand] of all time. I grew up reading it.

~Rob Lowe

I don't like to let my celebrity interfere with me living my life. I like to meet people, I like to talk to people.

~Rob Lowe

I enjoy experiencing life. Being a celebrity can really stand in the way of that.

~Rob Lowe

People should be allowed to do whatever they want in the privacy of their own home or their own hotel room.

~Rob Lowe

When people consent to do something, they should be able to do whatever they want.

~Rob Lowe

When I'm angry I'm an incredibly tough person, because I don't get angry easily.

~Rob Lowe

I can't help but be a little more gun-shy and wary about people.

~Rob Lowe

My life is really based around my house and my friends and my family at the moment, and has been for a while now.

~Rob Lowe

There was a period in my life where I went out a lot and I had a really good time. But that period is over.

~Rob Lowe

[Allison Janney] could memorize anything. She would memorize in the makeup trailer!

~Rob Lowe

Chris [Farley] - I would consider him a comic animal. With the emphasis on "animal."

~Rob Lowe

You wouldn't want somebody in office who hasn't experienced life.

~Rob Lowe

It's part of your job as an actor to put your personal problems behind you and work. Good actors can do that.

~Rob Lowe

Everybody is naughty, everybody is good.

~Rob Lowe

Anything that is stifled will eventually ferment or explode.

~Rob Lowe

[Jodie Foster] is one of my favorite actors and people in the business.

~Rob Lowe

I believe in ceremony. I think ceremony is important, pomp and circumstance, tradition. I'm into those things.

~Rob Lowe

Last night, we were all watching Harry Potter in bed, and I thought, 'This isn't something you have when you're single, that's for sure.'

~Rob Lowe

[Doctor Cukrowicz in Suddenly, Last Summer is] is one of the most unpronounceable roles in the modern-day theater day canon, and one of the most boring!

~Rob Lowe

Did you eat a lot of paint chips when you were a kid?

~Rob Lowe

[Code Black] doesn't look like any other CBS show... and I don't mean that as any sort of judgment. It's just unbelievably unique, it's gorgeous, and it looks like a film.

~Rob Lowe

People are human. There's such a premium today on being perfect. That's just not the way people are.

~Rob Lowe

Apparently Sodapop Curtis said "gnarly," and Chris Traeger said "literally." Every decade I have a favorite phrase I can't stop with.

~Rob Lowe

Medical-genre shows have been around forever, they will be around forever, and I think this [Code Black] is a great iteration of the next generation.

~Rob Lowe

You can't believe everything you read. It's never been more true.

~Rob Lowe

I'm not going to stop talking to people who come up to me in an airport. I'm not going to worry about what may be their ulterior motive.

~Rob Lowe

Read between the lines, folks, 'cause I'm here to tell you you're not getting the straight story. Ever. You're getting variations of the truth, if you're lucky.

~Rob Lowe

It's easy to live in a fantasy world, and that's why I refuse to live in an isolated environment.

~Rob Lowe

I've always found women more interesting than men.

~Rob Lowe

In school, I had two or three best guy friends, but mostly if I was just hanging, I'd like to talk to the girls, because they were more interesting.

I think they were smarter.

~Rob Lowe

Random Roles? Oh, I saw Virginia Madsen do this the other day! You see? I'm paying attention!

~Rob Lowe

Ridley Scott's company makes great work in whatever arena, whether it's movies or commercials or television. They just do really quality stuff, so you know it's going to be quality.

~Rob Lowe

I'll be a role model on my terms, but don't make a role model on your terms.

~Rob Lowe

I had to learn American sign language. And I did stuff in it, stuff that was just for me and was fun, that I don't think anyone would ever notice.

~Rob Lowe

I don't think you have to be perfect to be a role model.

~Rob Lowe

You show me a perfect person and I'll show you somebody who has lived a very closed life.

~Rob Lowe

As far as my work for causes or social issues, that's something I'm doing as a private citizen.
