

Robbie Robertson

Quotes

Thinking, People, Play, Records, Country, Years, Bob, Rocks, World, Song, Guitar, Musical, Kids, Revolution, Reality, Made, Band, Nice, Tomorrow, Native American

You fog the mind, you stir the soul.

~Robbie Robertson

You don't stumble upon your heritage. It's there, just waiting to be explored and shared.

~Robbie Robertson

Give us the strength, give us the wisdom, and give us tomorrow.

~Robbie Robertson

I've always been in love with that Delta-flavored music the music that came from Mississippi and Memphis and, especially, New Orleans. When I was 14, I was in a wanna-be New Orleans band in Toronto.

~Robbie Robertson

Say a prayer for the lost generation, who spin the wheel out of desperation.

~Robbie Robertson

We need to have a taste factor in our life. It isn't about what's popular; it's about what's really good.

~Robbie Robertson

Bob Dylan is as influential as any artist that there has been.

~Robbie Robertson

Boy, do I got some stories to tell.

~Robbie Robertson

There is an extraordinary collaborative spirit when you are learning and growing.

~Robbie Robertson

I love the idea of having a kid who says, 'Yeah, of course I knew about

Billie Holiday and Johnny Cash when I was nine years old.'

~Robbie Robertson

making a noise in this world making a noise in this world you can bet your ass, I won't go quietly making a noise in this world.

~Robbie Robertson

If I can play one note and make you cry, then that's better than those fancy dancers playing twenty notes.

~Robbie Robertson

Time is not kind to everything.

~Robbie Robertson

Most of my younger Native American friends are not in any way looking for sympathy, and they're not looking to lay guilt on anybody. They have their dignity, and they do what they do.

~Robbie Robertson

Music should never be harmless.

~Robbie Robertson

I think that there's always great music being made. Always has been, always will be.

~Robbie Robertson

People go through periods when things are dark and cloudy, and they talk dark and cloudy.

~Robbie Robertson

Musical revolutions, I don't know how many I've been through.

~Robbie Robertson

The Beatles tried to do some tours and found it to be completely pointless and became a non-touring band after that, and with very good reason.

~Robbie Robertson

There's a bookstore in New York where you could buy scripts, and I got addicted to them because they were easy, quick reads and the pictures were so vivid.

~Robbie Robertson

It's extraordinary that revolutions taking place around the world were sparked by communication on the Internet.

~Robbie Robertson

The rock concert experience for people was really pretty stupid, you know, at the time. People would go to concerts not with the idea of listening at all.

~Robbie Robertson

It's a bit of a sore spot, the Thanksgiving in Indian country.

~Robbie Robertson

When you make a record, your own record, and you don't even recognize it yourself, it's hard to think if anybody else is going to recognize.

~Robbie Robertson

Working on 'The Last Waltz' introduced me to Martin Scorsese, and I had been a movie bug since I was a young kid.

~Robbie Robertson

You never know what could be interesting tomorrow.

~Robbie Robertson

I don't want to be one of those people saying, 'Remember when things were better?'

~Robbie Robertson

I haven't been to many music events where somebody was performing and it actually made me cry.

~Robbie Robertson

I think, some countries, you have to be dead to have your picture on a stamp.

~Robbie Robertson

I admire those old road dogs, Willie Nelson, Bob Dylan. That's their life.

~Robbie Robertson

I don't believe it's all for nothing. It's not just written in the sand.

~Robbie Robertson

I'm really lucky because I found myself in a position where I can do whatever I want to do. I can make records, produce records, make movies, or I can do nothing. I'm not a slave to the dollar.

~Robbie Robertson

I think the world of Chuck Berry.

~Robbie Robertson

Lord please save his soul, he was the king of rock and roll.

~Robbie Robertson

When I was playing with Bob Dylan in, like, 1966, I was, like, 20 years old.

~Robbie Robertson

I come from a family who prided themselves, both sides, on memory.

And I was told growing up, constantly, that I was born with a really good memory.

~Robbie Robertson

Once you establish a foundation of knowing what the greatest recording artists of all time were Wouldn't you want your kids to know this stuff?

~Robbie Robertson

By the time I was 13, I was the only one in London, Ontario, who knew how to play rock n' roll.

~Robbie Robertson

I'd always thought Cage's 'Root of an Unfocus' would be great in a movie.

~Robbie Robertson

Everybody grows in their own way.

~Robbie Robertson

Confused by the big city blues, he didn't know who's life he's leading. Put yourself behind the wheel, see if you can get that feel.

~Robbie Robertson

When I was younger, I thought I was too young to really be personal. I thought that what I was feeling and thinking might be half-baked.

~Robbie Robertson

I like to work on records when I feel inspired, not because it's expected of me.

~Robbie Robertson

Record making is an extraordinary experience.

~Robbie Robertson

Some music is supposed to be disposable; that's OK. A lot of music is fun for today, but it isn't supposed to be timeless; it's supposed to be trendy.

~Robbie Robertson

There's something so healthy about young people speaking up in unity.

~Robbie Robertson

For years after 'The Last Waltz,' I got all kinds of silly movie offers - or, maybe, not silly, but parts that are not my calling lots of offers to play some wonderful boyfriend.

~Robbie Robertson

That whole lifestyle - make a record, do a tour: I know how to do that. It doesn't interest me.

~Robbie Robertson

Some people love some music, and they hear it a year later and they think, 'What was I thinking?'

~Robbie Robertson

I don't like overt traditionalism.

~Robbie Robertson

There's a thing that has happened in the U.S. where the spirit has been beaten so badly and so you feel no unity in the voice of the country.

~Robbie Robertson

I really have to feel a sense of freedom in my storytelling.

~Robbie Robertson

I try not to think the song to death. The main criteria is if it's working on an emotional level.

~Robbie Robertson

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- People Quotes
- Play Quotes
- Records Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Bob Quotes
- Rocks Quotes
- World Quotes
- Song Quotes
- Guitar Quotes
- Musical Quotes
- Kids Quotes
- Revolution Quotes
- Reality Quotes
- Made Quotes
- Band Quotes
- Nice Quotes
- Tomorrow Quotes
- Native American Quotes