The surest sign that God is alive in you is joy.

~Robert Barron

Love is not a sentiment or feeling. Love is actively willing the good of the other.

~Robert Barron

The minute you walk outside of your church on Sunday you're in mission territory.

~Robert Barron

The cross is Jesus going into the very lair of death. He goes to meet head-on that which frightens us the most. And what does He do? He battles it. He engages it. And finally he conquers it.

~Robert Barron

Begin with the beautiful, which leads you to the good, which leads you to the truth.

~Robert Barron

Turn your car into a monastery.

~Robert Barron

The ego-drama is nothing compared with the theo-drama. The fun begins when we let God write our stories.

~Robert Barron

Beauty is the arrowhead of evangelization, the point with which the evangelist pierces the minds and hearts of those he evangelizes.

~Robert Barron

Your faith will grow only in the measure that you give it away.

~Robert Barron

We are exceptionally good at seeing the faults in others and exceptionally adept at ignoring the faults in ourselves.

~Robert Barron

We have laws against polluting our rivers but not against polluting our minds.

~Robert Barron

Love without truth devolves into sentimentality. Truth without love becomes cold and calculated.

~Robert Barron

Christ's invitation to the priesthood is an invitation to a way of life that is athletic in its intensity and heroic in its form.

~Robert Barron

I don't think we'll understand Advent correctly until we see it as a preparation for a revolution.

~Robert Barron

The long nights that Pier Giorgio Frassati spent on his knees in front of the Blessed Sacrament had something to do with the long days spent in service of the poor.

~Robert Barron

We need to mock false gods publicly.

~Robert Barron

The slightest cooperation with God's grace can provoke a massive spiritual change.

~Robert Barron

The human race is one big dysfunctional family.

~Robert Barron

Beauty is the arrowhead of evangelization.

~Robert Barron

When God went to the cross he made even death itself a place of hope.

~Robert Barron

A story can sing the truth and not just tell it.

~Robert Barron

Catholicism is a matter of the body and the senses as much as it is a matter of the mind, precisely because the Word became flesh.

~Robert Barron

God is a placebo for your own mortality.

~Robert Barron

In a way, fasting is like the "calming of the monkey mind" effected by the rosary prayer: both are means of stilling the effervescence of relatively superficial preoccupations.

~Robert Barron

Christians have no business moping around.

~Robert Barron

Easter is an earthquake, an explosion. If you see it as less than that, you're not getting it.

~Robert Barron

Both total accommodation to the culture and total resistance to it are usually signs of intellectual sickness.

~Robert Barron

Hans Urs von Balthasar maintained that the best evangelistic strategy is to capture people with the beautiful, then enchant them with the good, and then lead them to the true.

~Robert Barron

The only thing particularly new about the "new atheism" is its nastiness.

~Robert Barron

Bob Dylan said, "The executioner's face is always well-hidden". That's the problem: The cross pulls that hood off.

~Robert Barron

There's no way up but down.
