It's about reaching as many souls as I can through techno, speaking God's truth and his gospel to as many ears as I can, taking the message to the street.

~Robert Hood

We're connected to God through faith and Satan through fear.

~Robert Hood

All I know is "make a joyful noise unto the Lord", and I do that whatever opportunity I get.

~Robert Hood

Jesus is all about inclusion not exclusion.

~Robert Hood

The church is so big on law but not on the love.

~Robert Hood

Spirituality and the secular world are not that far apart.

~Robert Hood

It's so important that we say 'I can see his point of view and I can see his point of view'.

~Robert Hood

That feeling of hopelessness and racism has been looming over Detroit ever since I was a kid.

~Robert Hood

Christianity and the Holy Spirit is not just for a special group of people, it's for all of us. That's when I really began to seek God and his will for my life.

~Robert Hood

What we need to do from God's perspective is that we need to reach out and understand each other.

~Robert Hood

I'm not there to impose my religious beliefs on anybody, or say 'this is the only way you should think'. It's up to you to decide, and God is a God of free will.

~Robert Hood

When there's fear people act out in desperate ways.

~Robert Hood

The message has to go to the streets, it's imperative that we reach those who may not get to a church. We receive their questions, it's important that the world asks questions.

~Robert Hood

I ask God in spirit and in truth 'what are we?'. It's the questions first.
