The people you love become ghosts inside of you, and like this you keep them alive.

~Robert Montgomery

Home, the spot of earth supremely blest, A dearer, sweeter spot than all the rest.

~Robert Montgomery

If you are lucky enough to be a success, by all means enjoy the applause and the adulation of the public. But never, never believe it.

~Robert Montgomery

And Thou, vast Ocean! on whole awful face Time's iron feet can print no ruin trace.

~Robert Montgomery

My advice to you concerning applause is this: enjoy it but never quite believe it

~Robert Montgomery

Are you really listening... or are you just waiting for your turn to talk?

~Robert Montgomery

There's nothing terrible in death; 'Tis but to cast our robes away, And sleep at night, without a breath To break repose till dawn of day.

~Robert Montgomery

As o'er the stormy sea of human Life We sail, until our anchor'd spirits rest In the far haven of Eternity.

~Robert Montgomery

The solitary monk who shook the world From pagan slumber, when the gospel trump Thunder' d its challenge from his dauntless lips In peals of truth.

~Robert Montgomery

Earth, air, and ocean, glorious three.

~Robert Montgomery

So we said to ourselves, if we can remove antibodies from someone who's in the middle of a terrible rejection, and save those kidneys, then we should be able to remove them before surgery

~Robert Montgomery

A moment is a mighty thing Beyond the soul's imagination; For in it, though we trace it not, How much there crowds of varied lot How much of life, life cannot see, Darts onward to eternity!

~Robert Montgomery

How sublime Upon a time-blanch'd cliff to muse, and, while The eagle glories in a sea of air, To mingle with the scene around! - Survey The sun-warm heaven.

~Robert Montgomery

A universal beauty clothes the world, And one heart seems to beat for all mankind!

~Robert Montgomery

How oft, - be witness, Guardian of our days!... The sky besprinkled o'er with rainbow hues, As if angelic wings had wanton'd there.

~Robert Montgomery

The soul aspiring pants its source to mount, As streams meander level with their fount.

~Robert Montgomery

And Thou, vast Ocean! on whose awful face Time's iron feet can print no ruin-trace, By breezes lull'd, or by the storm-blasts driv'n, Thy majesty uplifts the mind to heaven.

~Robert Montgomery

And now, Though haply mellow'd by correcting time, I thank thee,
Heaven! that the bereaving world Hath not diminish'd the subliming hopes Of youth, in manhood's more imposing cares.

~Robert Montgomery
