Since then I have held many jobs at museums in Colorado and Wyoming. I have also taught summer courses at the University of Colorado.

~Robert T. Bakker

One of my major goals is to develop a web of the small Wyoming museums and create a major museum system. There are about eight of these museums, and they are all scattered.

~Robert T. Bakker

Often extinctions in the ocean occur at the same time as those on land. Then again, the ice age extinctions lost many big animals, but not many sea faring ones.

~Robert T. Bakker

I also discovered the only complete Brontosaurus skull.

~Robert T. Bakker

As an undergraduate I held many small jobs as an illustrator.

~Robert T. Bakker

Inveterate creationists, then or now, never allow their faith to fall victim to facts.

~Robert T. Bakker

Feathers predate birds.

~Robert T. Bakker

Dinosaurs are the best way to teach kids, and adults, the immensity of geologic time.

~Robert T. Bakker

At Harvard I was in charge of the comparative anatomy labs.

~Robert T. Bakker

Also, while I was at Yale, I had a job teaching kids at the museum.

~Robert T. Bakker

In 1941 Richard Owen said that the dinosaurs were almost hot blooded.

~Robert T. Bakker

To me it seems that the warm blooded dinosaurs replaced advanced mammal ancestors that were warm blooded, also.

~Robert T. Bakker

Stegosaurus was common only on well drained, dry soil.

~Robert T. Bakker

I also got a chance to go to the American Museum in New York, which helped my interest.

~Robert T. Bakker

I want to find a voracious, small-minded predator and name it after the IRS.

~Robert T. Bakker

Birds evolved from a small raptor like theropod.

~Robert T. Bakker

Traditional dinosaur theory is full of short circuits. Like the antiquated wiring in an old house, the details sputter and burn out when specific parts are tested.

~Robert T. Bakker

If we measured success by longevity, then dinosaurs must rank as the number one success story in the history of land life.

~Robert T. Bakker

I want to be the Bob DeNiro of the Jurassic.
