I'm very proud of being a Bee Gee and am always aware that I'll be identified as a Bee Gee.

~Robin Gibb

I don't take things for granted, because everything feels more fragile. It's made me wonder about mortality and how long you've got somebody in the world. I'm more fearful than I used to be.

~Robin Gibb

If the heart stops for more than two minutes, you have massive brain death. There are only two minutes between our conscious world and zero. That's how fragile our consciousness is.

~Robin Gibb

Music is being treated as one big karaoke machine.

~Robin Gibb

I sometimes wonder if the tragedies my family has suffered are a kind of karmic price for all the fame and fortune the Bee Gees have had.

~Robin Gibb

Music became an obsession, and eventually we felt more comfortable with each other than we did with anyone else. The three of us were like one person.

~Robin Gibb

My idea of a good time is creating something and reading a good book.

~Robin Gibb

I love food, I love eating.

~Robin Gibb

I don't like fruit but I'm vegetarian, so eat a lot of veggies.

~Robin Gibb

I find it very, very hard. He was part of the fabric of my life. We were kids together, and teenagers. We spent the whole of our lives with each other because of our music.

~Robin Gibb

We've been in each other's pockets our entire lives.

~Robin Gibb

I don't have too much faith in destiny, or an afterlife. This is it.

~Robin Gibb

As the plane got closer to Miami, I had this terrible feeling he was dying. Maybe he was telling me that he was going. I felt anger, panic, despair and helplessness.

~Robin Gibb

With Maurice suddenly going, I realised... I think I've matured. I don't take things lightly any more.

~Robin Gibb

I don't like lifts and will walk up 20 flights of stairs if I have to. Crowded rooms make me uncomfortable, too, although I can sing to a stadium full of thousands of people no bother.

~Robin Gibb

Losing people makes you realize you've got to grab life - not put things off.

~Robin Gibb

Lots of people aren't comfortable with silences. They feel they've got to fill the dead air.

~Robin Gibb

I'm not a party person or someone who likes to sit and drink in clubs all night, and never really have been. I have a good time through work.

~Robin Gibb

I visit English country churchyards where historical figures are buried.

~Robin Gibb

It just felt like the right time to focus on solo material.

~Robin Gibb

My whole life has been a bit like a Nintendo game.

~Robin Gibb

I've always been thin. If you go back to when we first started I've always been skinny.

~Robin Gibb

I love stuff like Mozart.

~Robin Gibb

How do you explain the bond between man and wife? Well, for one thing, it's private. What people do in their own marriage is their own business.

~Robin Gibb

An artist is an artist because he is not happy with the world, so he creates his own existence.

~Robin Gibb

My work means everything to me.

~Robin Gibb

Everyone's looking to the urban scene for inspiration now.

~Robin Gibb

I don't like rock opera with back beats.

~Robin Gibb

I don't know what 'home' or 'abroad' is any more.

~Robin Gibb

It's hard for me to put on weight.

~Robin Gibb

I've always been naturally thin.

~Robin Gibb

I haven't really met anyone else who has influenced me, but you never know, it could happen next year or next month. I just like to go with the spur of the moment.

~Robin Gibb

If even a small portion of the praise that is bestowed on Michael Jackson now in death was given to him last year, in life, he might well still be with us.

~Robin Gibb

I'll never get used to living without Mo, but the painful things that surround what happened to him aren't so painful any more - not so raw or so new.
