Birth is the most profound initiation to spirituality a woman can have.

~Robin Lim

Every baby's first breath on Earth could be one of peace and love. Every mother should be healthy and strong. Every birth could be safe and loving. But our world is not there yet

~Robin Lim

I imagine a world in which all humans are born with an intact capacity to love, and I am willing to devote my life to making it happen.

~Robin Lim

As a midwife, I am immersed in Oxytocin day and night.

~Robin Lim

I am just one of many many thousands of midwives, who are devoted to saving lives gently.

~Robin Lim

Women will always pay the price for love, that is why God makes us so much stronger than men.

~Robin Lim

I came to the conclusion that bringing Humans to earth with an intact ability to LOVE is essential if we are to survive as a species.

~Robin Lim

Oxytocin is the hormone of love. We share it when we have a good conversation, we share it when we make love, and when we hug, and BIRTH is the biggest brightest time of rich oxytocin-sharing.

~Robin Lim

Gentle birth, protecting mother and baby, is a solution that I believe will result in positive change for our society.

~Robin Lim

Childbirth being one's most significant life passage, those close to us when we open to birth a baby will never be forgotten.

~Robin Lim

I cry when I work in the garden, because the Sun, the rain, the wind and the Earth all work together to make us food and flowers. It just blows me away.

~Robin Lim

I became a fierce advocate for gentle birth as a solution for the most pressing problems of our times - a solution that begins at the source.

~Robin Lim

Oxytocin rocks the world.

~Robin Lim

The amazing heroic women in labor, they are the truest inspiration, and when they push their babies into the light... I am astonished every time.

~Robin Lim

Statistically, the United States rates number 39 in maternal mortality. This means that it is safer to be pregnant and to give birth in 38 other countries than the USA... and less expensive too.

~Robin Lim

In a nutshell, I am a mom, a grandma, and a midwife.

~Robin Lim

I love to receive babies into this world, so crawling around on my knees in the birth room is my best place, and most often you can still find me there.

~Robin Lim

The number of maternal deaths is significantly understated because of a lack of effective data collection both in the US and around the world.

~Robin Lim

There is a largely-ignored healthcare calamity in the United States that sees between two and three women die every day during pregnancy and childbirth.

~Robin Lim

My sister and the baby she was carrying died in the United States of America. They died in the country that spends more money on pregnancy and birth technology than any other country in this world.

~Robin Lim

I had amazing midwives when I first became a teen-aged mom, and each of the five times I gave birth.

~Robin Lim

I get crazy upset when I feel mothers or babies are not getting the loving care they need.

~Robin Lim

I sing, I clean house, I write poetry. I cry. And I tell everyone I can, "I Believe in YOU."

~Robin Lim

My passion for maternal and child health led me to continue my studies and pursue the path of midwifery. And here I am now... still catching babies.

~Robin Lim
